Born in Long Island, NY, and moved to Miami at the age of 12. Graduated from Palmetto HS and the University of Miami where she joined ΦΣΣ and served as Recruitment Chair and on the Homecoming Executive. Alex's Undergraduate degree was in vocal performance (opera) and she still has a strong interest in the performing arts. Attended Law School at Nova Southeastern University where she was editor of the Law Review and on the Moot Court. Alex and her husband, Eugene Flinn, founder of the Village of Palmetto Bay and its first mayor, have 2 daughters, Kat and Meredith (ΔΖ). Alex practices law in addition to being a published writer of 14 young adult novels! One novel, Breathing Underwater, was chosen as a Top 10 Best Book by the American Library Association. Another novel, Beastly, was made into a movie, starring Vanessa Hudgens and Neil Patrick Harris! We are so fortunate to have Alex in MWP. What an accomplished and multitalented lady!
