

Comparison of Valid Criticisms: Obama/Biden vs Trump

Weighted Harm Score (High=3, Medium=2, Low=1):

Administration	Weighted Harm Score
Obama/Biden	36
Trump	46

Severity Breakdown of Valid Criticisms:

Severity	Obama/Biden	Trump
High Impact	6	9
Medium Impact	7	8
Low Impact	4	3

The analysis suggests that both administrations had valid criticisms, but their impact profiles differ: - Obama/Biden: 36 weighted points, with most criticisms falling in the Medium category. - Trump: 46 weighted points, with more criticisms falling into the High category, leading to a greater overall harm score. This implies that while both faced legitimate critiques, the Trump administration's were more concentrated in areas with higher national and international impact.
