

First Time AirBnB Users

We see that you are new to AirBnB. We have a few tips to ensure that you get the coveted 5-star rating which creates a good standing for you in the AirBnB community making it easier to book and which will eventually help you be able to instantly book on AirBnB. Some more detail and additional tips can be found here: Airbnb Tips for Hosts and Guests: the Ultimate Guide for 2020

Our tips to help you get your five stars:

1. Read and follow the house rules (link included in your welcome note)
2. Follow the notes left in the cabin for you. (just one or two).
3. Follow the Check-Out List in the black binder (on the table) on your last day.

These next ones are money saving tips that ensure we can offer the best rates and experience to all of our guests.

4. Use the gifts and amenities sparingly, or as noted.
5. Use sheets provided (top AND bottom) to reduce laundry loads. Be Green! :-)
6. Lower the temperature to 16 just before you leave.

Thanks for your help! Have a great holiday! Don't hesitate to contact us and/or use our AirBnB listing or private website (www.thepawlaks.ca) to get the information you need to plan your best vacation experience.
