February 15, 2026, The Sixth Sunday of the Ordinary Time Reflection on the Lord's Prayer: "Our Father" (3)

Calling God "Our Father": A Privilege or a Gift?

Calling God "Our Father"—is it a privilege or a gift? The simple answer is that it is not merely a privilege, but a gift. God himself gives this gift to humanity through his Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior. The image of God as "Father" is not a human invention or the result of a rational search for God's name and identity. Rather, it is revealed by Jesus himself. As he says, "No one knows the Father except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him." (Matt 11:27) Although humanity was given a privileged relationship with God in the beginning, this privilege was lost through the sin of pride, greed, and disobedience of Adam and Eve. As a result, the "privilege of being in paradise—the Father's house—was lost."

The Jewish people did not dare to call God "their Father." God's fatherhood is revealed to humanity only through Jesus. Only in and through Jesus do we receive the privilege—and the daring hope—to invoke God as "Our Father." This privilege is primarily a gift from God, given to us through the merits of the sacrificial death and resurrection of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches this beautifully: "Thus, the Lord's Prayer reveals us to ourselves at the same time that it reveals the Father to us. O man, you did not dare to raise your face to heaven; you lowered your eyes to the earth, and suddenly you have received the grace of Christ—all your sins have been forgiven. From being a wicked servant you have become a good son. ... Then raise your eyes to the Father who has begotten you through Baptism, to the Father who has redeemed you through his Son, and say: 'Our Father.' ... But do not claim any privilege. He is the Father in a special way only of Christ, but he is the common Father of us all, because while he has begotten only Christ, he has created us. Then also say by his grace, 'Our Father,' so that you may merit being his son." (CCC 2783)

When we invoke God as "Our Father," we regain our dignity, happiness, and identity as sons and daughters of God. By saying "Our Father," we enter into a new and personal relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Not even the angelic orders address God as their Father. Only human beings who are redeemed by Christ's death and resurrection and incorporated through Baptism are given this privilege. When we say "Our Father," we express our solidarity and communion with one another and become one family.

Although all human beings can call God "Father" in a general sense, because they are created by him in his image and likeness, only baptized persons, in a particular and sacramental sense, can rightfully and with filial dignity call God "Our Father." Therefore, invoking God as "Father" is not simply a privilege or a duty. Rather, it is a special gift and a right granted to those who are baptized in the water and blood of Christ. Through Baptism, our sins are forgiven, we are restored to our original dignity and holiness, we become adopted sons and daughters of God, and we receive the inheritance of eternal life. Baptismal grace gives us the daring hope to address God as "Our Father" and "Abba."
