Observations for the Solemnity of All Saints
(Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14; Psalm 24; I John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12a)
By Deacon Jon Fadely

Today we celebrate all the holy people of God, the saints. What does it take to become a saint? What is required to live a holy life? All baptized Christians share a universal call to holiness, as St. Peter wrote in his first letter to the Church, citing the book of Leviticus, "As he who called you is holy, be holy yourselves in every aspect of your conduct." That's a tall order; one we could say is impossible by human strength alone. But with God, all things are possible.

To become holy requires the grace of God, so richly imaged by St. John as the blood of the Lamb. Those who have "washed their robes" – the virtue of their daily conduct – in this divine grace are the holy ones of God. These are the ones who seek the face of God, who make themselves pure as He is pure, for "the clean of heart . . . will see God."

It is love that cleanses our hearts. We are purified, healed and made whole by love. There is no greater love than the love of God for His people, given to us in the great sign of the Paschal Mystery of Christ, who poured out his life for us from his Holy Cross, that we might be saved. As we love one another as He has loved us, our hearts are kept clean and pure, and we become holy as He is holy, the One who is Love Incarnate.

Hoy celebramos a todo el pueblo santo de Dios: los santos. ¿Qué se necesita para llegar a ser santo? ¿Qué se requiere para vivir una vida santa? Todos los cristianos bautizados comparten una llamada universal a la santidad, tal como escribió San Pedro en su primera carta a la Iglesia, citando el libro del Levítico: «Como el que los llamó es santo, sean también ustedes santos en toda su conducta». Es una meta elevada; podríamos decir que, por las solas fuerzas humanas, resulta imposible. Pero con Dios, todo es posible.

Alcanzar la santidad requiere la gracia de Dios, representada de manera elocuente por San Juan como la sangre del Cordero. Quienes han «lavado y blanqueado su túnica» —es decir, la virtud de su conducta diaria— en esta gracia divina, son los santos de Dios. Son aquellos que buscan el rostro de Dios y se purifican tal como Él es puro, pues «los limpios de corazón... verán a Dios».

Es el amor lo que purifica nuestros corazones. Por medio del amor somos purificados, sanados y restaurados. No existe amor más grande que el amor de Dios por su pueblo, manifestado en el gran signo del Misterio Pascual de Cristo, quien entregó su vida por nosotros desde la Santa Cruz para que pudiéramos ser salvados. Al amarnos unos a otros tal como Él nos ha amado, nuestros corazones se mantienen limpios y puros, y nos volvemos santos como Él es santo: Él, que es el Amor encarnado.

WHY ATTEND A DAILY MASS?

It helps us to grow in our personal holiness. As we need food everyday, we need the Eucharist everyday. If you missed a Sunday Mass, kindly consider attending one of the weekday Masses. Let us pray for our broken world, which needs God's Mercy and peace. If and when you can attend a weekday Mass, you will receive special graces for your efforts.

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention for November
