Observations for Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe
By Deacon Jon Fadely

As we conclude this liturgical year with the solemn celebration of our Lord and King, Jesus Christ, we are reminded by the readings that when He comes again in glory, to fully establish His Kingdom, He will come as the judge of all the living and the dead, and He will hold each of us to account for the choices we have made in life, especially the works we committed or omitted on behalf of the poor among us, the "least of these," whom He regards as His own family.

We have been sojourning with the Gospel according to Matthew throughout this year, and it is good to reflect on the basic message that Jesus preached from the beginning of His public ministry: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." (Matthew 4:17) This message still rings true today, augmented these past weeks by the warning He gave His followers as He concluded His public ministry, "Stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come." (Matthew 24:42, cf 25:13)

We profess our belief that Jesus "will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end." And we pray, as He taught us to pray to our heavenly Father, "Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven." The question we must consider is, are we ready for His return? Even today?

Al concluir este año litúrgico con la celebración solemne de nuestro Señor y Rey, Jesucristo, las lecturas nos recuerdan que, cuando Él regrese en gloria para establecer plenamente su Reino, vendrá como juez de todos los vivos y los muertos. Él nos pedirá cuentas a cada uno de nosotros por las decisiones que hemos tomado en la vida, especialmente por las acciones que realizamos —o que omitimos— en favor de los pobres que están entre nosotros, «los más insignificantes», a quienes Él considera sus hermanos.

A lo largo de este año, hemos caminado junto al Evangelio según san Mateo; es oportuno reflexionar sobre el mensaje fundamental que Jesús predicó desde el comienzo de su ministerio público: «Arrepiéntanse, porque el reino de los cielos está cerca» (Mateo 4, 17). Este mensaje sigue vigente hoy, reforzado en las últimas semanas por la advertencia que Jesús dirigió a sus seguidores al concluir su ministerio público: «¡Estén atentos! Porque no saben en qué día vendrá su Señor» (Mateo 24, 42; cf. 25, 13).

Profesamos nuestra fe en que Jesús «de nuevo vendrá con gloria para juzgar a, vivos y muertos, y su reino no tendrá fin». Y rezamos, tal como Él nos enseñó a orar a nuestro Padre celestial: «Venga tu reino; hágase tu voluntad, así en la tierra como en el cielo». La pregunta que debemos considerar es: ¿Estamos preparados para su regreso? ¿Incluso hoy mismo?

WHY ATTEND A DAILY MASS?

It helps us to grow in our personal holiness. As we need food everyday, we need the Eucharist everyday. If you missed a Sunday Mass, kindly consider attending one of the weekday Masses. Let us pray for our broken world, which needs God's Mercy and peace. If and when you can attend a weekday Mass, you will receive special graces for your efforts.

Faith Formation for Children

Parents are the primary teachers of faith. They have serious obligations before God to train their children in faith and in the love of God. Please, register your children for "Faith Formation" or "Sunday School".
We also need volunteers to teach or to be an aid in the classrooms. If you love teaching children, and watch them grow in our amazing faith, please do not hesitate to sign up to be a teacher or aid.
If you have any questions, please call the office or talk to Barbara Cozart or Sara Gonzalez.

Formación en la Fe para Niños
