November 16, 2025, Thirty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time: Grades of Prayer – 6. Prayer of Quiet – Definition and Characteristics

The Prayer of Quiet has ancient roots in early Christianity, particularly in the tradition of the Desert Fathers and Mothers. These early monks withdrew into the desert not to escape reality, but to free themselves from the social and political pressures of the Roman Empire. Their aim was to discover the inner silence needed to calm the restless mind. Originally called the “prayer of quiet,” this way of seeking God came to be known as contemplation. The desert monks recognized that only through inner freedom, true love, wisdom, and the grace of God could the world be transformed and the Kingdom of God—marked by justice, peace, and love—be established. Immersed too deeply in worldly thinking and behavior, Christianity risks losing its power to act as “light and salt” in the world. For this reason, the prayerful witness of the Desert Fathers and Mothers, and of holy men and women throughout history, emphasizes the essential role of prayer. Each Christian is likewise called to cultivate inner freedom, peace, courage, and joy in order to help build a kingdom of love and peace amid hatred and unrest, and a kingdom of justice amid oppression and inequality. For the desert mystics, solitude was not an escape into comfort or inactivity. Henri Nouwen describes solitude as “a place of conversion, the place where the old self dies and the new self is born, the place where the emergence of the person occurs.” Solitude is a bold encounter with our most authentic self in the presence of God’s pure love. Such contemplation naturally flows into action, allowing one to return to the world renewed and more capable of serving others.

St. Teresa of Avila teaches that the Prayer of Quiet is a form of contemplative, silent prayer in which one enters inner stillness to encounter God. It is marked by a focused mind and a deep peace that enables the soul to “listen” to God’s presence. This prayer is considered a supernatural gift, bestowed by divine grace rather than achieved by human effort. Still, ordinary forms of prayer—including meditation, reflection, and sustained silence—can prepare the soul to receive this gift. Several key characteristics mark the Prayer of Quiet. 1. it involves inner silence, the calming of the obsessive mind. 2. it is a divine gift that cannot be produced by willpower alone. 3. it is entirely God-centered. 4. it brings profound peace and rest to the soul. Finally, in this state the will is captivated by God, while other faculties—such as the intellect, imagination, memory, and emotions—remain active, though less dominant. In the Fourth Mansions of the Interior Castle, St. Teresa lists the spiritual effects of this prayer: a spirit of deep freedom; filial fear of God and carefulness not to offend Him; strong confidence in God; love of sacrifice; deep humility; disdain for worldly pleasures; and growth in virtue. Therefore, one should not be discouraged if this mystical state has not yet been reached. Fidelity to daily prayer, silence, solitude, meditation, and the practice of virtues such as love, humility, and patience will gradually dispose the soul to receive the higher gifts of the Holy Spirit.

¡Dios nos está llamando a hacer grandes cosas en Santa Teresa!

Estamos bendecidos con una comunidad vibrante y en crecimiento de jóvenes, ansiosos por aprender y servir. Sin embargo, nuestra instalación actual necesita reparaciones y ya no es adecuada para satisfacer las necesidades físicas y espirituales de nuestros niños y adolescentes.

Nuestra visión para un nuevo Edificio de Educación Juvenil, un espacio dedicado que servirá como un faro de fe, un centro de aprendizaje y un refugio seguro para nuestra juventud, no se trata solo de construir paredes y un techo; se trata de edificar una base de fe para la próxima generación de nuestra familia parroquial.

Piensa en una ocasión en la que un programa parroquial o una actividad de grupo juvenil cambió tu vida o la de tu hijo. Tu donativo creará más de esos momentos transformadores para innumerables familias en el futuro. Como escribió San Agustín: "Invocarte es un acto de creer en ti". Creemos en el poder de la gracia de Dios que actúa a través de nuestra comunidad parroquial para lograr este objetivo.

Todas las donaciones, grandes o pequeñas, tendrán un impacto en el éxito de este proyecto.

Sin embargo, se va a necesitar que cada uno de nosotros aporte—¿podemos contar contigo?

La BUENA NOTICIA es... cada dólar que dones a la Campaña Regocíjate en la Esperanza antes del 31 de diciembre de 2025 será igualado hasta $200,000 por un generoso donante. Esto incluye cualquier donación deducible de impuestos que hagas al final del año antes del 31 de diciembre de 2025. ¡Así que por favor dona, porque Dios ama al dador alegre!

Rejoice in Hope Capital Campaign

God is calling us to do great things at St. Therese!

We are blessed with a vibrant and growing community of youth, eager to learn and serve. However, our current facility is in need of repair and is no longer adequate to meet the physical and spiritual needs of our children and teenagers.

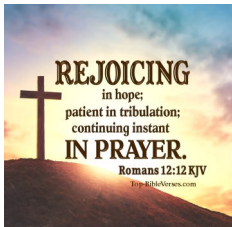

Our vision for a new Youth Education Building, a dedicated space that will serve as a beacon of faith, a center for learning, and a safe haven for our youth isn't just about constructing walls and a roof; it's about building a foundation of faith for the next generation of our parish family.

Think of a time when a parish program or a youth group activity changed your life or the life of your child. Your gift will create more of those transformative moments for countless families to come. As St. Augustine wrote, "Calling upon you is an act of believing in you." We believe in the power of God's grace working through our parish community to achieve this goal.

All donations – large or small – will have an impact on the success of this project.

However, it is going to take each and every one of us to give—can we count on you?!

The GOOD NEWS is... every dollar you donate to the Rejoice in Hope Campaign by December 31, 2025 will be matched up to $200,000 by a generous donor.
This would include any year-end tax-deductible donations you make by December 31, 2025. So please give, for God loves a cheerful giver!
