

As SMART-TD Illinois State Legislative Director, I've seen firsthand how much President Jeremy Ferguson truly cares about our members. Jeremy communicates and interacts with our members like no past president ever has.

Over his many years of service to our union, Jeremy has demonstrated an unwavering commitment to the health and welfare of our members and the advancement of our cause. His leadership has been instrumental in securing significant improvements in wages, benefits, and working conditions, and he has been a tireless advocate for our members' rights.

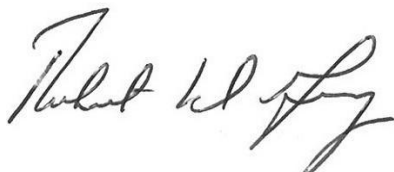

Under Jeremy's leadership, SMART Transportation Division has become a stronger, more effective union and the unparalleled leader amongst rail labor. He has worked tirelessly to build relationships with other labor organizations and industry stakeholders, and he has played a pivotal role in instituting policies that have greatly benefited our members and the entire labor movement.

I am continually impressed by Jeremy's integrity, dedication and strategic vision. He is a man of his word, and he always puts the interests of our members first.

There is no doubt that Jeremy is the best candidate to lead SMART Transportation Division now and into the future. His experience, vision and passion to fight for our members on a daily basis is unmatched.

As a State Director, I am proud to endorse Jeremy Ferguson for President of SMART Transportation Division. I urge you to join me in voting for Jeremy Ferguson for President of SMART Transportation Division.

Sincerely,
