To Whom It May Concern:

I came to know Greg Jablonsky when he applied for a CTO position I was helping a client recruit for. Greg was the most qualified for the position and eventually received an offer from my client.

Since then I have been Greg's mentor, providing him with guidance utilizing my own experience in the IT industry. I am enthused that the feedback from my client on Greg's performance has been all positive.

Over the course of our mentoring sessions Greg has shared ideas with me that demonstrates his ability to think "Big Picture." He has strong business acumen that directly correlates to strategic planning and Information Technology's alignment to those strategies. He also has the ability to build a team of people by identifying their strengths and put them in roles with the best chance for success.

I would recommend Greg to any company looking to hire a senior IT leader. He possesses the attitude, determination and skills required to fulfill that role.

Sincerely,

Don Reeve
