As they say, the journey of a thousand miles begins with a single footstep...

Originally from Erie, Pennsylvania, I started my fine arts training at age 7 through grade school and high school and with private teachers and at the Erie Arts Center. Also at the Erie County Vocational Technical School. I earned a scholarship and attended the Governor's School for the Arts at Bucknell University in the summer between my junior and senior years of high school. It was a statewide competition, I won my place and participated.

I was accepted to the Art Institute of Pittsburgh. I graduated with a Visual Communications Degree. While in school, I had many art courses both commercial and fine art-based. After graduation, I relocated to Philadelphia to begin my career in advertising as a creative on the art side. Later, arriving in New York City and working for many top advertising agencies, FCB, Harrison and Star and more. My full resume can be seen on LinkedIn, linkedin.com/in/beth-stephano. I enjoyed much success. All the while I continued to paint and also began glass blowing in returning to my roots, the world of fine art.

As a painter in oils, I participated in First Fridays in Old City, Philadelphia and exhibited in old city at different galleries. Also, I have exhibited in many artist shows and craft shows over the years.

But then my feet traveled once again to O'ahu, Hawaii to fulfill a lifetime dream of my husband and I. We moved to O'ahu in 2020 where I currently reside. Enjoying the Aloha of the islands.

My watercolors are studies of the ocean and the cloud banks that travel across at the horizon. I work in realism and abstraction. Many different variations of color, time of day and light. Trade wind clouds raining into the ocean at the horizon or just the horizon with the break that occurs at the edge of where the sky meets it. Different iconic landmarks on O'ahu also are a main interest. Most currently I have just started painting on silk for wearable art.

I am also known for my florals in oils which I have been painting for many years. Each has a unique perspective and fades into the dark field of the background in one place and differs in each work. It is always the game that I play, not knowing where the point will be that fades into the background till I start working.

Currently, I have just finished my Summer Featured Artist Residency in the Kahala Resort at the Grande Lobby, as their showcased artist for July and August 2025.

I am a member of both the Hawai'i Watercolor Society and National Watercolor Society as well. I have participated in the Members Show at the DAC center. The current 2025 Show has "Sunrise Over Koko Head from Kahala Beach" and "Pele's Finger" (<https://www.hawaiiwatercolorssociety.org/>). Also a member of the Hawai'i Craftsmen. My fiber work, painting on silk is in the Textiles Hawai'i Craftsmen Show, DAC, June 2024. <https://www.hawaiicraftsmen.org/>. I was selected as one of the top 10 Artists in Hawai'i at the Park West Competition November 2022 (<https://www.parkwestgallery.com/made-in-hawaii-2022-top-ten/>). Three commissioned watercolors for the acclaimed author Michael Woodruff for his book covers of "Arcing the Flatline", "Brand of Blue" and "Applause from Above", they are available on Amazon.

Inspiration is all around me. I pull my visuals from plants that are living in my yard or inspired by plein air painting around O'ahu. Surrounded by beauty, it is my work every day to create my best piece next. Hoping that my artwork brings happiness and meaning to someone else in their home and life.
