

About 'Treat Yourself Tours'

I've been a shopping tour SHOPPER for well over 20 years which lead me to become a HOST which I've enjoyed doing for 10 years now.

I have a strong insight into what people want from their tours and have enjoyed many repeat tours where previous tour organisers have requested me to host on a yearly basis for them.

I've met many wonderful people along the way and hope to meet many more through this exciting new venture!

Treat Yourself Tours was created for the purpose of continuing what I enjoy doing and spending more fantastic times with people I've met over the years as well as meeting new organisers, their family and friends who are looking to "Treat Themselves" to a fun day away from the day to day .
