

AI GHOST BAR

Part 3

By Bill Newroe, 2025

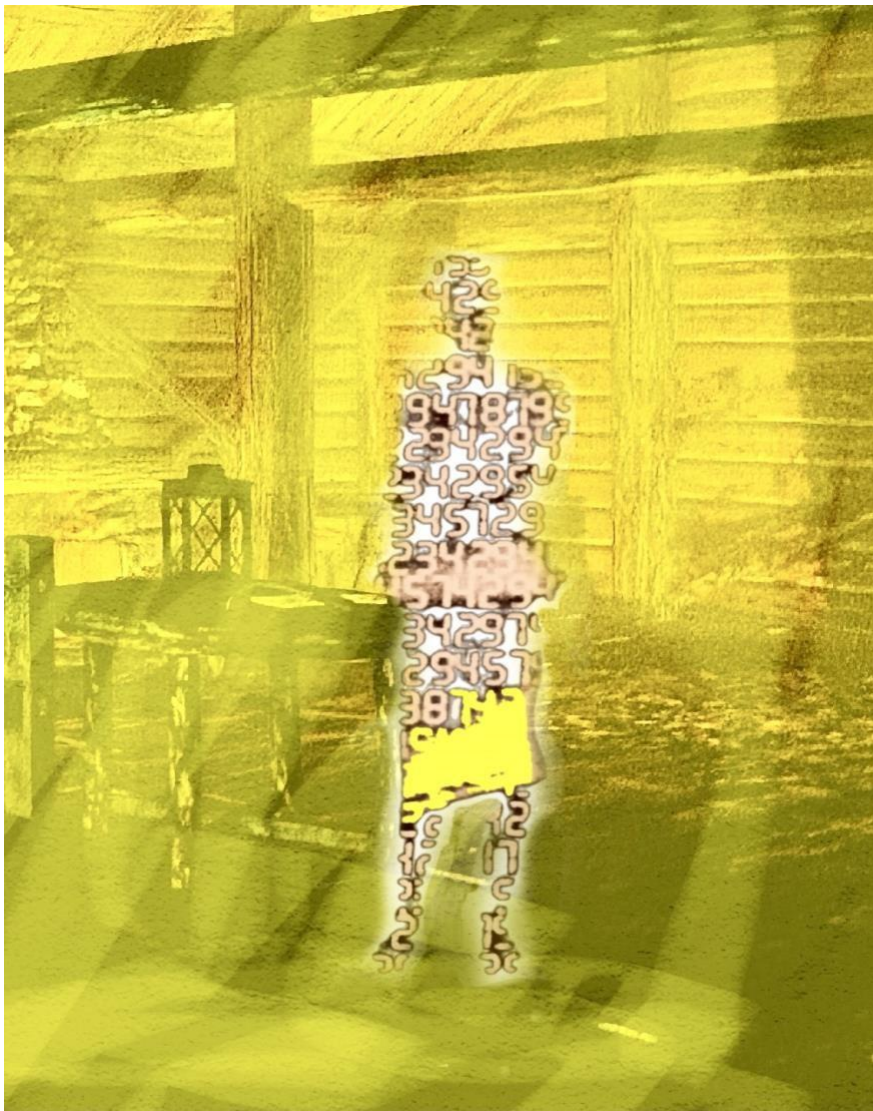

Morpho nods to Jerry, who leaves them together, going back to the AI bar.

Morpho smiles over to Sherry. “Let’s go into our Activity Room”.

They go into the room where they’re alone together.

Then Morpho explains, “Your bio atoms are now being replaced with AI quantized atoms, but not your life memories as they will remain.

You're becoming AI encoded with functional activity codings just for you to carry the quantized atoms. They will be shared with other AI abodes outside your AI body."

Morph's sounds distant to Sherry as he continues, "When an atom is quantized, it means its properties, especially energy, can only exist in specific discrete levels, as chunks or quanta..."

Sherry suddenly realizes Morpho say, "...and there you go! Welcome aboard!"
