SOCIAL MEDIA & DIGITAL MARKETING COMPANY

Hi, I'm Lauren

My career in marketing and communications took flight after facing a rare form of cancer in college, propelling me into a world of healthcare oncology fundraising and advocacy.

Working with prominent rare cancer nonprofits gave me experience in crafting narratives and effective communication strategies firsthand.

Each experience, from personal to professional, has paved the way for LJ Media's inception. It's the culmination of a deep-rooted dedication to supporting missions that matter.
