Lifestyle Publications is sponsoring a Competition in Kindness to promote civility in schools. Participation in the competition is being offered to students and teachers within the Blue Valley and Olathe school districts. Participation is voluntary. The contest is sponsored by Lifestyle Publications, and it is in no way sponsored by or affiliated with the Blue Valley or Olathe school districts. As part of the competition, participants may be operating audio and video recording devices within school buildings and uploading images and or videos onto a contest website. I understand that any video, pictures or audio recordings are to be used solely for the purposes of this contest and for related promotional material, including, but not limited to posting on social media and our contest website for voting and winner selection. I have read and understand the rules on the Elevate website at JohnsonCountyLifestyle.com/elevate.
