

A BIT ABOUT ME...

Brandy Robertson

Brandy has taught dance for over 20 years. She graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts degree in dance from the University of North Texas. While in college, she was a member and president of Chi Tau Epsilon Honor Society and Dance UNiT. She was a four year member of the UNT Dancers Pom Squad and served as the team's Choreographer's Assistant for 2 years and the team's Dance Captain for 1. In addition to the dance department semester shows, she performed at American College Dance Festival, Mid-America Dance Network in Missouri, Contemporary Dance Fort Worth Dance Exchange, Dance for the Planet in Dallas, and Denton Arts Festival. Brandy was the only student selected to perform for sculptor Jesus Baptiste in "Thundering in the Granite" in Houston. She was named Outstanding Dance Major by the National Dance Association and received numerous peer voted awards including Outstanding Performer. The UNT faculty honored her with a University Honor Award in dance her senior year of college.

After college, Brandy traveled the country teaching dance camps and choreographing for drill/ dance teams with Marching Auxiliaries. She served as a panel judge for MA Dance and America's Best Cheer regional and national competitions. She is the former director of the award-winning Hillcrest High School Panaders in Dallas, TX and the MA National Champion Panader Ensemble. She was listed in Who's Who Among American Teachers in 2002, and is still a member of DTDA (Dance/ Drill Team Directors of America).

Brandy's performance credits after college include being a soloist with PIECES Modern Company, a company member with N2it Jazz Company, and 3 years as an NBA Dallas Mavericks Dancers. Brandy has been teaching in the Sugar Land area for 3 years now. She enjoys attending dance conventions and seminars to enrich her choreography and strengthen her teaching skills. She is excited to be a part of EPIC Center for Dance and is sure the studio will be a positive part of the Sugar Land community.
