

Did You Know?

Seeds for Eco Communities is built upon a strong passion for the environment!

The people who make up the Board of Directors, Advisory Committee and volunteers have committed to be part of a team to help others live in balance and harmony with the natural environment.