

JORDAN PUBLICATIONS LLC NEWSLETTER

FEBRUARY 2026

An update from the Director,
Robert Jordan

"And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age" (Matthew 28: 20 NIV)

IN THIS ISSUE

- Bright Future Philanthropy
- The Veterans Outlook Podcast:
150 Episodes!
- A Special Message -
- This Month's Free Digital Short Story

At Bright Future Philanthropy Corporation, a tax-deductible donation can provide a widow of Kabul, Afghanistan, with food and a warm blanket this winter. Please consider helping vulnerable women, who are often overlooked in society. For more information, visit: <https://fatherbob.co/> or for specific information, telephone: (757) 770-8652.

<https://open.spotify.com/show/0p6rz0gKCWeSH29XKnlz3a>

"A place of strength, healing, and hope for every veteran still walking the road ahead."

Congratulations

on publishing
150 episodes!
Here's to the next 150!

PodBean

Jordan Publications is pleased to announce that Emotional Healing Volume X will be published at the end of February. These Coloring pages provide a palette for focused attentiveness. Coloring these designs provides coordinated visual and tactile stimulation that has been shown to reduce the effects of trauma.

A SPECIAL MESSAGE BUT WHY JESUS?

Today, life is confusing, and we are bombarded by conflicting messages and surreptitious implications that bend our moral compass and lead to fragrant vices that become habits. The definition and determination of who we are and what we are as a society are becoming increasingly blurred. And while we talk about our strength being in our diversity, in reality, this diversity has produced vociferous competing entities that, in many instances, seek to pull us apart.

In this chaotic world, with all of its sin, greed, corruption, destruction, war, brinkmanship, chauvinism, separatism, and injustice, there is one who can reconcile this mess that humankind has made, that is Jesus Christ. In life, Jesus was perfect, sinless, compassionate, and humble, above all, selfless. In death, Jesus was willing and able through suffering to take on the weight of sin, our burden, freely, to be scourged, mocked, spat on, humiliated, and defiled, yet He did this for all of humanity. Jesus, crucified, died on the cross, among thieves, taken down, buried in a borrowed grave, only to be raised from the dead, and through His resurrection, foretold long ago, to be witnessed in life again, did he ascend unto heaven with the promise for all who would follow Him with eternal life. Jesus Christ invites all people to come and enter into a loving relationship with Him, now, with the promise of eternal life in the Kingdom of Heaven one day. As Boa writes, "Christ's work of reconciling people of all cultures to himself and to one another through himself, then, is effected by Christ's redeeming work of bringing forgiveness, healing, cleansing, and hope to all who believe in him." [1]

And this is the difference between Christianity and other religions. Summed up in one bold Scripture: We find Jesus speaking to Martha before raising her brother Lazareth from the dead, whereby, "Jesus said to her, 'I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die' (Jn. 11:25 (NIV)). It is an open invitation for all to follow The Way. Rather than through force, affiliation, dominance, or adherence, Jesus invites all, everyone, to join Him in a journey of love and mercy shown to all, and above all, it is the might of grace and not coercion by the sword that yields a multitude of followers; it is a beautifully interwoven community of believers from every culture that extends the love of Jesus to all who would follow.

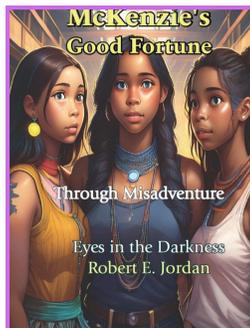

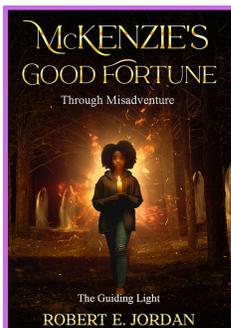

[1] Boa, "Christ and Cultures," under "Christ the Ruler of Cultures," para. 1.

THIS MONTH'S FREE DIGITAL SHORT STORY: RUM, FRESH BREAD, AND BUTTER

<https://online.fliphtml5.com/zwtic/From-Ashes-to-Appointment-bUwC/>

From Ashes to Appointment is a story about a man named David, who lost everything only to find the pathway to eternal life. His life moves from the gutter to selfless, purposeful service, where he is committed to helping others. What David discovers is that riches are not of this world but found in the Kingdom of Heaven. The point of this story is to live a life of goodness, be helpful, serve others, emulate the Lord, be kind, love one another, seek reconciliation with God, and know that your place is reserved in the Kingdom. Amen.

Exciting News!

The McKenzie's Good Fortune Through Misadventure series is available from Robert E. Jordan for a donation and the cost of postage. This trilogy would make a great gift! Email Robert for more information.
jordan.publications.llc@gmail.com