4. Old Business
 - Due to Covid-19 restrictions, the VCTM conference was canceled and the registration fee was refunded.
5. New Business
 - 2020 Conference
 - The BRCTM conference will be held on Monday, Oct. 5, 2020 (barring any restrictions due to Covid-19).
 - William Fleming HS will be the site for the conference. Donna Snyder is coordinating with Suzanne Bazak on the use of the building.
 - All board members are encouraged to solicit speakers and presenters for the conference.
 - Theme: Jane Wolfe suggested a theme of resiliency and Kelsey Huffman discussed including speakers who will share technology strategies that have been learned due to online learning. The theme will be decided upon after a speaker is found.
 - The Salad Factory will cater the conference (if they are still in business). They will be contacted in Aug./Sept. 2020.
 - Ryan Albee of Patrick Henry HS was selected as the winner of the 2020 BRCTM Scholarship.
 - Ashley Pratt agreed to spearhead the development of a BRCTM social media presence (Instagram, Twitter, etc.) This will start in summer 2020.

- Kelsey Huffman will use her role as past president to liaise with NCTM to develop more information and resources for our teachers.

6. New Officers for 2020-21:

- Terry Hartley will assume the role of BRCTM President.
- Jane Wolfe will assume the role of BRCTM Secretary.
- Ashley Pratt and Carrie Bush will carry out the duties of the BRCTM Webmaster.
