THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

The Cross, suffered by Jesus, freed us from the slavery of the devil, and espoused us to the Divinity with an indissoluble bond.

The Cross is fecund and gives birth to Grace in us.

The Cross is Light, It disillusion us of what is temporal, and reveals to us what is eternal.

The Cross is fire, and reduces to ashes all that is not of God.

The Cross is coin of inestimable value, and if we have the fortune of possessing it, we will be enriched with eternal coins, to the point of becoming the richest in Paradise, because the currency that circulates in Heaven is the Cross suffered on earth.

The Cross is the noble pulpit of the uncreated Wisdom, that teaches us the highest, the finest and most sublime doctrines.

The Cross is the nourishment of Hope.

The Cross is the beacon of operating Faith.

The Cross is like hard wood, which preserves the fire of Charity, keeping it always lit.

(From the diaries of the Servant of God Luisa Piccarreta)

"If you truly want to know that you are loved by God, set yourself before a Crucifix, and in silence and peace gaze upon it, knowing in your heart of hearts, this was done for you and because of you and if it were necessary, He would do it all over again, just to have you home forever."
