In a class of his own

Conor Breen

MENTALIST & MAGICIAN

TEACH

Teach has travelled the world as an educator and as a mentalist and magician, connecting with people, allowing them to connect with themselves. Having lived in South-East Asia for a number of years, Teach has learned how to interact with people in various different ways, in order to leave a long and lasting impression with those he encounters.

Teach uses methods of suggestion, psychology and misdirection, allowing people to see the world around them in ways they could never imagine.

He has been performing as a Mentalist and Corporate Entertainer for over 10 years, and he has dedicated most of his life to education and teaching others, guiding those around him to gain control over their life, their fears, their emotions, and their mind!

"Teach By Name, Entertainer By Nature"
