

Small Group - Private Art Lessons Contract

Thank you for choosing me as your art instructor! I look forward to collaborating with, supporting, and growing with your growth as a creative!

This service agreement outlines the policies and practices for private, semi-private, and small group art lessons. Should you have any questions, please feel free to discuss them with me. From this point forward, in this agreement terms like “I” or “you” refer to the student and/or payor where applicable. Art lesson strategies are tailored to your unique needs. Your art lessons will be conducted with the most compassionate methods possible regardless of age, race, cultural identity, gender, disability, religion, sexual orientation, marital or socioeconomic status.

LESSON FEES & PAYMENT

All private, semi-private, or small group art lessons are to be paid prior to the instruction. Your payment schedule will be dependent upon your contact (weekly, monthly, quarterly, or annually). A discount will be provided to monthly, quarterly and annual pay schedules. Payment can be remitted in the form of cash, credit, check or Venmo.

CANCELLATION POLICY

24 hour notice is required for any missed or cancelled sessions. If you fail to provide notice within 24 hours of your lesson that you intend to cancel, you will be charged for that lesson.

In the event of an unforeseen event that prevents 24 hour notice (accident, illness, injury, etc.), please notify me as soon as possible. I will attempt to make up your lesson. If I am unable to reschedule your lesson, a credit will be applied to your account.

Group lessons cannot be made up and students will forfeit their session fee for any missed sessions.

REQUIRED MATERIALS

Artful Transformations will provide each student with the basic supplies needed for private art instruction based on their contract agreement and the medium chosen for art instruction (for example: a student coming for private art lessons in graphite drawing will be provided a sketchbook, pencil, and eraser). Artful Transformations will provide notice to the student and/or parent if additional supplies are needed for special projects (this could include printing off reference materials for a project, etc.). If a financial limitation exists for obtaining additional supplies outside of the studio, lessons will be altered to accommodate that limitation.

INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY

In the event that there is inclement weather, art lessons can be conducted via Zoom. If the student chooses not to complete Zoom art lessons during inclement weather, the art lesson will be rescheduled for a later date.
