

Sisterhood Empowerment Network Scholarship Program

Terms & Conditions

1. Scholarship Eligibility & Maintenance

- Recipients must meet all initial qualification criteria, including financial need, academic standing, and community involvement.
- Scholars must actively participate in membership activities, mentorship programs, and required nonprofit initiatives.

2. Payment & Deductions

- The scholarship applies to approved educational expenses and will be distributed accordingly.
- Failure to fulfill financial obligations (such as tuition balance payments) will result in a deduction being removed from their case after two missed payments.

3. Compliance with Organization Rules

- Scholars must adhere to the values and mission of Sisterhood Empowerment Network.
- Any behavior violating nonprofit policies, community guidelines, or ethical standards may result in scholarship suspension or revocation.

4. Mandatory Membership & Educational Participation

- Recipients are required to actively engage in all educational activities that contributed to their scholarship needs (e.g., tutoring, mentorship programs, educational workshops).
- Attendance at required nonprofit events and initiatives is mandatory—the scholarship must be actively used, not reserved solely for leisure-based activities.
- Failure to participate in necessary educational and development opportunities within the organization can lead to scholarship removal.

5. Financial Status & Reporting

- If a recipient's financial situation changes, they must report the change within 10 days.
- Failure to report financial changes within the timeframe will result in immediate scholarship revocation and repayment requirements based on the magnitude of the change.
- Transparency about financial updates ensures resources are properly allocated to individuals who continue to meet scholarship criteria.

6. Scholarship Review & Termination

- The organization reserves the right to review scholarship status periodically.
- If a recipient fails to meet outlined expectations, Sisterhood Empowerment Network may revoke their scholarship without further notice.

7. Acknowledgment & Agreement

- By accepting this scholarship, recipients agree to abide by all terms listed above.
- Noncompliance may lead to scholarship termination, repayment obligations, or forfeiture of future opportunities within the Sisterhood Empowerment Network.
