

Junior Architect role

Location : Belapur, Navi Mumbai, Maharashtra.
Role Begins : September 2021

Mercury Architects requires a highly competent and results-driven Junior Architect with expertise in software, visualizing & designing, preparing working drawings, project presentation, identifying risks, cost estimation, & handling issues. Extensive experience in drafting drawings in 3D model software's and has hands-on experience in the design and development of residential & commercial building. Key strengths qualities in time management, project planning, hands-on methodology and finding solutions to complex design & execution issues. Should demonstrate a significant technical acumen, a team player with an exceptional work ethic, and consistently delivers superior customer service.

Required Skills:

- Qualification : Bachelor of Architecture
- Experience : Minimum 1 year of Industrial experience (Design & Drafting)
- Design Software : Revit with one-year minimum experience (preferred)
- Other Software : Sketch up, Photoshop, Lumion.

Training will be provided to right candidate.

The Role:

- Work with a variety of small to large complex projects.
- Responsibility to deliver technical detailing and documentation throughout developed design and construction phases.
- Completion of Concept drawings as per the brief.
- Work on interior design and working drawings.
- Report to Architectural Head.
- Data entry in systems.
- Any admin related role as required.

Opportunity to be involved in projects supporting teams across New Zealand.
Exposure to latest tools and technology, excellent scope for career development with an International Joint Venture.

Applicant will be paid a competent salary with travel allowances.

Minimum 3 years of commitment required.

Click on APPLY to send your application.