Who We Are

- A 501(c)(3) nonprofit status based in Washington State
- Founded by three high schoolers in 2019 to address the difficulties that younger students faced with schools transitioning online during the pandemic.
- All tutors and board members are high school students
- All tutoring takes place virtually over Zoom or Google Meet

The logo for 425 Tutoring features a stylized '425' in a dark teal color, followed by the words '425 TUTORING' in a bold, dark teal, sans-serif font. The entire logo is set against a circular teal background.

Initial Meeting

- After your student has been paired with a tutor, an initial meeting with all parents should be established
- Tutors should cover an outline of their curriculum, student interests/current knowledge, tutoring schedule, homework etc.
- Feel free to ask any questions to your child's tutor if needed as this meeting is meant to help both parents and students better understand the logistics of tutoring

Tutor Expectations

- Tutors must be committed to teaching at least 8 weeks
- Tutors must have their cameras on, this is not required for students.
- If tutors encounter a one-on-one situation, a parent/guardian must supervise the meeting or the tutor may record the meeting which will be available on request
- Tutors must address all parent/guardians if any changes are to be made within the group

Tutor Expectations (Dos and Don'ts)

Dos	Don'ts
DO have your camera on and interact with your students	DONT swear or use any profanity
DO show up on time and be consistent	DONT be inconsistent
DO reach out to the parent/guardian when necessary	DONT ridicule, tease, or yell at your student
DO be positive and encourage students to give their best efforts	DONT make assumptions about your student's beliefs or culture
DO construct a safe and unprejudiced environment for students	DONT be afraid to ask for help
DO reinforce progress and acknowledge the student's work	DONT be uncommunicative, especially with the organization.

Ending Tutoring

- If a tutor chooses to stop teaching, they must notify all parents/guardians of their students in advance
- If your student wishes to continue tutoring, you will shortly receive an email from 425tutoring@gmail.com, which will notify you of all necessary steps to complete

Unanswered questions?
