TEMPORARY FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE (TFA) INSTRUCTIONS AND PROCEDURES

1. Prior to completing an investigation and application, determine if the minor child(ren) is eligible for TFA. The minor child must be under 18 years of age and still enrolled in high school, however, TFA may be extended to youth over the age of 18 until their completion of high school, provided the child is unmarried and has not reached 21 years of age. The minor child must be the biological child, stepchild, or in the legal custody of, a qualifying veteran. A qualifying veteran is defined as a member of the United States Armed Forces serving on federal orders current under Title 10 of the United States Code, inclusive of all components, OR any veteran possessing an up-to-date membership in The American Legion. Active duty applicants can be considered without being a member of The American Legion. A single onetime non-repayable Temporary Financial Assistance grant of up to $2,500 will be permitted for the minor child (ren) of a qualifying veteran.
2. Once you have determined that the minor child (ren) is eligible, make an appointment with the family at their residence to complete the application if possible. Secure all official documentation and provide all requested information. Your report must include a detailed description of the family's financial need, steps taken to alleviate the situation, and follow-up plans of the post and/or investigator.
3. TFA is strictly for the basic needs of minor children including shelter, utilities, food, clothing and medical. Medical grants must be approved prior to treatment and must be accompanied by a physician's statement and estimated costs.

TFA will not pay for cable, consumer debt, Internet services, insurance, taxes, transportation, previous debt, or any expense that does not contribute to the active basic needs of minor children.

4. The following documents must accompany the TFA application:
 - ✓ Current American Legion membership or military orders
 - ✓ Birth certificates of children
 - ✓ Marriage license
 - ✓ Death Certificate (if applicable)
 - ✓ DD214 (for verification of Legion eligibility) when veteran parent is not in the child(ren)'s life
 - ✓ Custody documentation and legal name changes
 - ✓ Statement from employer on employment status
 - ✓ Pay stubs for the last 60 days
 - ✓ Bank Statements (less than 60 days old)
 - ✓ All current statements, bills, leases, foreclosures, eviction notices, disconnection notices to be considered.
Expenses not documented will not be considered.
5. Ensure all sections of the application are complete and the appropriate signatures are obtained. Incomplete applications may result in delays or denial.
6. Applications must be sent to your American Legion department Children & Youth chairman or headquarters for approval. All applications sent directly to National Headquarters will be returned to the appropriate department without review or action.

Before sending a TFA application to the department C&Y chairman or department headquarters, did you

- ✓ Determine that the child or children are eligible for TFA?
- ✓ Complete all sections of the application and attach all required documents?
- ✓ Obtain all required signatures?
- ✓ Conduct a complete investigation and ensure that all other forms of assistance have been exhausted?
- ✓ Make a copy for your records in case of lost or destroyed application?

All communication about submitted applications should be directed to the department Children & Youth chairman or department headquarters. To protect the privacy of applicants, National Headquarters will not release any information other than to the department.
