

A COMPLETE STEP-BY-STEP INSTRUCTION GUIDE

ABOUT VENOFYE

This luxury bee venom skin care brand was established in 2015. Venofye was inspired by our results-driven approach, searching beyond the conventional to discover solutions to skin's most common issues. What was found was a unique ingredient that became the inspiration and focus of our formulations; Bee Venom. Known for its collagen-stimulating abilities, bee venom helps to give the skin a plump, smooth appearance. Safe for cosmetic use and cruelty free (no bees are harmed in the venom extraction process), bee venom skin care offers its users beautiful, maintainable skin improvement and enhancement.

Scientific research and advanced technologies play a role in each of our product formulations. In addition to bee venom, Venofye products contain a variety of traditional, proven skin care ingredients like antioxidants, peptides and botanical extracts. We've found the perfect balance between emerging trends and time-tested classics to provide our customers with products that deliver superior results.

We look forward to being a part of your skin care journey.

KEY INGREDIENTS

Bee Venom

A mild dose of bee venom can have a positive impact on the skin, encouraging it to react as though it has endured a bee's sting. This causes it to produce collagen that keeps skin resilient, healthy, and smooth.

Aloe Vera

Aloe vera is one of the oldest, most widely used skin care ingredients, sourced naturally from aloe leaves. It's soothing effect is more than just a pleasant sensation, as it has been shown to improve healing from burns and skin disorders, moisturize dry skin, and reduce the signs of aging.

Green Tea Extract

Drinking green tea is beneficial for our health due to the number of cellstrengthening antioxidants it contains. Applied topically, green tea extract can be just as beneficial to the skin, providing an anti inflammatory effect, promoting healing, and helping to reduce the appearance of fine lines.

Shea Butter

Shea butter comes from the nut of the shea tree, long considered sacred in its African homeland for its ability to protect the skin from dry, sunny conditions. Antioxidants, a moisturizing effect, and protection from UV exposure make shea butter an excellent anti-aging ingredient.

Vitamin C

Vitamin C has been renowned for its health effects for generations, and it makes for a critical addition to any skin care regimen. It can help lighten dark spots and brighten the skin, enhance UV protection, boost collagen production, and provide the deeper antioxidant benefits of reduced free radicals and lower cancer risk.

Vitamin A

Vitamin A has been used for a wide range of skin care benefits. As an antioxidant, it protects cells from free radical formation, a process that contributes to faster healing and tighter, smoother skin that is more resilient to damage from the sun or other environmental factors.

Vitamin F

Vitamin E is one of the best-known antioxidants. It is essential to incorporate vitamin E into your diet or skin care regimen as it can protect the skin from sun exposure and the signs of aging.

Synthetic Snake Venom/ Synake

(Diaminobutyroyl Benzylamide Diacetate) * As seen in the Viperlift collection

A harmless artificial version of the real thing – has been touted as a safer alternative to Botox. This tripeptide puts a temporary hold on muscle twitches and spasms, which can contribute to the formulation of wrinkles and aging.

Acetyl Hexapeptide-8

Acetyl hexapeptide-8 is another peptide said to have similar effects to those of Botox, though with far less risk of unintended consequences. This means it intercepts neural signals that cause muscle contractions beneath the skin – one contributing factor in the appearance of lines and wrinkles.

DMAE

Dimethylaminoethanol, or DMAE for short, has been studied as a moodenhancing and mind-sharpening ingredient, though evidence has also pointed to its effectiveness in keeping the skin feeling firm, supple, and wrinkle-free.

Collagen

Collagen is the natural substance produced by skin to heal wounds and keep it soft and supple, but the production of collagen tends to slow down with age. Its addition in skin care products can assist the body's natural production of collagen, leading to stronger, more beautiful looking skin.

Palmitoyl Oligopeptide

Palmitoyl oligopeptide combines peptides, which inhibit muscle spasms that can lead to lines and wrinkles, with palmitic acid to promote collagen production and assist the skin's natural healing abilities.

Hyaluronic Acid

Hyaluronic acid is an essential part of the skin's healthy balance, keeping it hydrated and receptive to nutrients that can promote healing and prevent lasting lines and wrinkles. Applying it topically can help bring strained or aging skin back into a healthy equilibrium.

Kojic Acid

Kojic acid is a safe means of mildly brightening the skin, making it a useful ingredient to fade the look of blemishes or scars from skin disorders like rosacea and eczema.
