

ISLA COLUMPIOS PROGRESO

03

"Isla Columpios," the perfect spot to swing between the sky and the sea.

05

Progreso Port, home to the longest boardwalk in the world, where the sea and history meet on the horizon.

Contents

- 03 Isla Columpios
- 04 Highlights of Isla Columpios
- 05 Progreso Port
- 07 Credits

ISLA COLUMPIOS
PROGRESO

A man and a woman are sitting on a wooden platform in shallow, clear turquoise water. The woman is on the left, wearing a yellow bikini top and sunglasses, smiling. The man is on the right, shirtless, wearing dark shorts and sunglasses, also smiling. A large, pink inflatable flamingo stands behind them. On the wooden platform in front of them is a black thermos and a small black bag. In the background, there's a small wooden hut on a platform in the water, surrounded by lush green trees under a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds.

ISLA COLUMPIOS

The "Island of Swings" is a true paradise in Mexico, hidden in the state of Yucatán and perfect for relaxing peacefully.

HIGHLIGHTS OF ISLA COLUMPIOS

Isla Columpios is a wonderful getaway from the routine, allowing you to connect with nature in a peaceful environment to recharge your energy. Surrounded by swamps and beautiful landscapes, you can enjoy the sun and the sea breeze.

This little paradise is encircled by a completely natural mangrove, which not only lets you appreciate its beauty in tranquility but also allows for kayaking—or even swimming—through its waters.

The island is a white sand settlement over the water, so there are no shops or restaurants. It is recommended to visit the “Island of Swings” as part of a tour that explains the area’s diverse biodiversity.

An aerial photograph of a long, multi-lane bridge stretching across a vast expanse of turquoise water. The bridge has a series of arches supporting its structure. In the distance, a city skyline is visible on the horizon. The sky is a deep blue with wispy white clouds. The text 'PROGRESO PORT' is overlaid in large, white, serif capital letters on the left side of the image.

PROGRESO PORT

The boardwalk is the social hub of Progreso Port. During the tourist season, it fills with visitors and locals strolling through the area and enjoying the views. Its thatched-roof restaurants are also a gathering spot for those looking to treat their taste buds.

A little beyond the traditional boardwalk is the Progreso International Boardwalk, a recently built extension connected to the original via the Chocolate Pier. This 1 km-long tourist promenade features numerous attractions, games, lights, and a lively atmosphere. Without a doubt, it is one of the city's most beautiful spaces, perfect for summer evenings.

Some of its highlights include an afternoon carousel overlooking the Gulf of Mexico, the giant "I Love Progreso" letters, the Pyramid of Kukulkán, and the Pirate Ship.

The boardwalk also offers must-visit restaurants such as Heladios, a typical snack-style eatery, Habaneros, Mariscos Chi Chi, and Crafter, along with national and international food stalls, play areas for children, murals, reading zones, bike rental stations, and more.

Thank you for choosing Mexico to create unforgettable memories with your family and friends.

We were delighted to accompany you on your journey and hope it was as enjoyable for you as it was for us.

Thank you

We have a gift for you!

Scan the QR code

If you enjoyed our service, help us by sharing your experience.

Scan the QR code

www.ekinotours.com