

ISLA COLUMPIOS PROGRESO

A man and a woman are sitting on a wooden swing that hangs over clear, turquoise water. The woman is on the left, wearing a yellow bikini top and sunglasses, smiling. The man is on the right, shirtless and wearing dark shorts and sunglasses, also smiling. A large, realistic-looking pink flamingo prop stands behind them. On the swing's wooden surface is a black thermos and a small black bag. In the background, there are wooden structures and boats on the water under a blue sky with white clouds.

ISLA COLUMPIOS

The 'Island of Swings' is a true paradise in Mexico, hidden in the state of Yucatán and perfect for a peaceful relaxation.

THE HIGHLIGHTS

Swing Island is a wonderful option to break the routine, connect with nature in a tranquil setting to recharge your energy, surrounded by swamps and beautiful landscapes, while enjoying the sun and sea breeze.

This little paradisiacal corner is surrounded by a completely natural mangrove, which not only allows you to appreciate its beauty in peace but also to take kayaking tours—or even swim—through it.

The island is a settlement of white sands on the water, so there are no businesses or restaurants; it is recommended to visit the 'Swing Island' along with a tour that explains the area's biodiversity features.

PUERTO PROGRESO

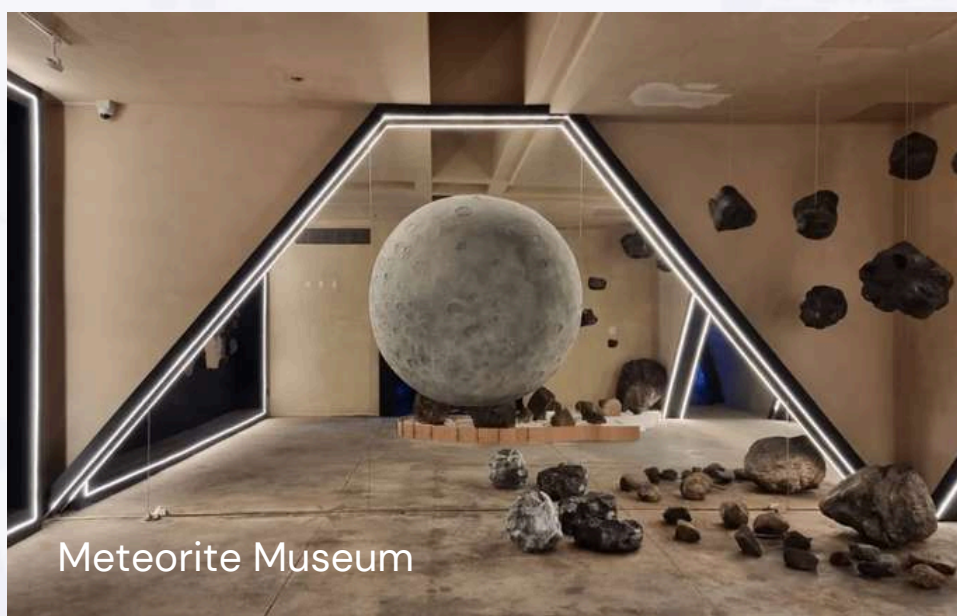

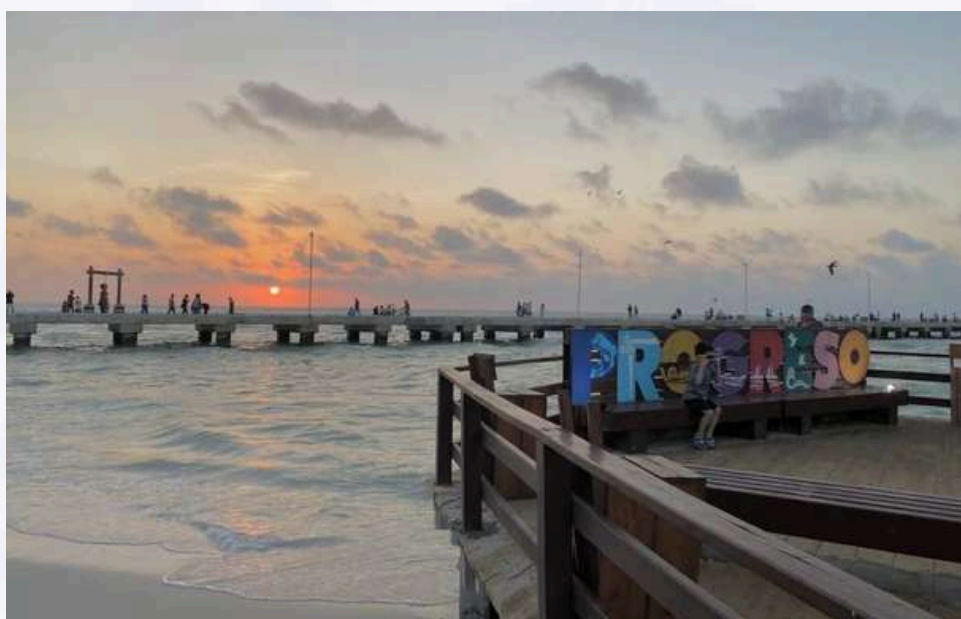

The boardwalk is the epicenter of social activity in Puerto Progreso. During the tourist season, it becomes crowded with visitors and locals strolling through the area and enjoying the views. Meanwhile, its thatched-roof restaurants are a popular meeting spot for those looking to treat their taste buds.

Just beyond the traditional boardwalk is the Progreso International Boardwalk, a newly created addition connected to the former by the Chocolate Pier. This 1-kilometer-long promenade features various attractions, games, lights, and a lively atmosphere. It is undoubtedly one of the most beautiful spaces in the city, perfect for summer nights.

A carousel operating in the afternoons with views of the Gulf of Mexico, giant "I Love Progreso" letters, the Pyramid of Kukulcán, and the Pirate Ship are just a few of the attractions on this beautiful promenade.

Additionally, it features must-visit restaurants such as Heladios, a traditional snack bar; Habaneros; Mariscos Chi Chi; and Crafter, as well as stands offering national and international cuisine. There are also play areas for children, murals, reading zones, bike rental stations, and more.
