Meet Mariano Bedoya

Born and raised in Argentina and the son of Olympic Equestrian Jumper, Jorge Bedoya Guido, Mariano is an accomplished rider and certified international trainer. He has lived in the United States since 2003 with his wife, Luciana Solari, who is also an equestrian athlete and trainer, and their show dogs, Otzi and Obi.

Mariano began his show jumping career in Argentina and has been trained by many top international riders, including Nelson Pessoa. He was on the Argentine Equestrian Team and began competing in the Nations Cup Competitions in South America and Europe in 1986. He participated in International Grand Prix Competitions in the US, Canada, South American, and Europe. He went to the Pan American Games in La Habana in 1991. He was on the 4th place team at the Pan American Games in Santo Domingo in 2003 and qualified for the Olympic Games in 1996 and 2004. In addition, he was on the Argentina Eventing Team from 1997 to 1999.

After turning professional Mariano trained team members from central America and prepared them for Grand Prix showing level and was a personal trainer for a silver medalist at the Pan Am Games. In 1996 Mariano trained and qualified an individual rider from South America for the Atlanta '96 Olympics and the '98 Rome World Equestrian Games. Since 2003 Mariano has been training riders and showing horses here in the US.

Mariano prides himself on taking horses and riders to achieving their goals, whether that is in the jumper, hunter, or equitation ring. Mariano's passion for teaching and his experience creates safe, successful, and fun results for his clients. Mariano has riders from beginners all the way to Grand Prix riders, bringing them equal passion and encouragement.
