

Lytton First Nation

Expression of interest for: Enforcement Officer Lands Department

Are you a motivated and passionate community member of Lytton First Nation interested in pursuing a valuable training opportunity as an Enforcement Officer to establish a meaningful career path within our community?

We are excited to invite expressions of interests from individuals eager to embark on a transformative journey through training at the BC Justice Institute, followed by the possibility of an in-community job position upon successful completion of the program.

This unique opportunity seeks individuals who are dedicated to enhancing their skill set, contributing to the well-being of our community, and cultivating a positive impact within the justice system. The comprehensive training will equip participants with knowledge, expertise, and practical experience necessary to thrive in various roles within the justice sector, all while nurturing a deep understanding and respect for our Nlaka'pamux cultural values and traditions.

If you are driven, committed, and eager to make a positive impact, we encourage you to submit an expression of interest. This is a great chance to pursue a rewarding career path and contribute to the well-being of Lytton First Nation.

On the job work could include:

- Support law development process
- Law/by-law enforcement training and expertise
- Develop enforcement laws, policies and procedures
- Community outreach and education
- Conduct enforcement patrols and enforcement actions

Interested individuals are invited to express their interest by email to: jobs@lfn.band
