Lytton First Nation

Job Posting: Animal Wellness Coordinator

Location: Lytton, BC
Position Type: Temporary – Grant Funded
Open until: November 13, 2026

About the Role

Are you a motivated and passionate community member of Lytton First Nation (LFN) interested in supporting animal wellness and health within our community? We are excited to invite Expressions of Interest for the Animal Wellness Coordinator position to facilitate the Animal Wellness Program funded by PetSmart Charities Incubator Fund.

Working in collaboration with the project partner, Vancouver Humane Society and under the Stewardship Department this role will oversee community engagement, animal wellness clinics, facilitated discussions, community outreach and will support policy and law development related to animal wellness in community.

If you are driven, committed, and eager to make a positive impact, we encourage you to submit an expression of interest. This is a great chance to pursue a rewarding career path and contribute to the well-being and health of animals in our community.

Valuable experience would include:

- Strong verbal and written communication skills to engage effectively with community members and project partners
- Demonstrated interest in animal welfare, advocacy, and promoting the humane treatment of animals
- Experience supporting, applying for, or delivering programs and initiatives funded through grants
- Understanding of animal wellness needs and the challenges faced by animals and their caregivers in the community
- Knowledge of and respect for Nlaka'pamux culture, tradition, values, and community protocols
- Proficiency in basic computer applications, including Microsoft Word, Excel, and email

Additional Requirements

- Ability to maintain confidentiality and professional boundaries
- BC Driver's License, and access to a reliable vehicle is an asset
