New Millennium Dawns

A Reunion Every 1000 Years

We Woolevers rarely act in haste—we tend to stop and think things through.... “Oh, a reunion? Well, I suppose once every thousand years isn’t too often.” So, with the turnover of the big 2000, it’s definitely time to do the millennium reunion.

(For those of you who are sick and tired of hearing the “M” word, I promise to not use it again in any of these reunion messages.)

Hope everyone had a happy holiday. And hope no one has been hit too severely with the flu bug.

It’s been gratifying to hear feedback about the reunion. So far, everyone has expressed the hope and expectation that their family will attend. Even Mark and Liza, who normally tour and entertain during the summer months, hope to be there for at least part of the festivities!

Reminder — Schedule your vacation

Now that everyone has a year 2000 calendar, it’s time to lock in your vacation schedule. So, clear your calendar for the weekend of June 23–25, 2000.

Still no hurry about making motel reservations — reservation deadline is June 16, 2000 — mention “Woolever Reunion.”

Tentative Schedule

No doubt many of you are wondering about planned activities, so here’s what we’ve got cooking:

Friday:

- Arrival and check-in at motel. Hospitality room reserved for hugs and gab until the wee hours. Snacks and beverages provided. Plan golf outing foursomes.

Saturday:

- Golf at sunrise. Farmer’s Market at Court Avenue in downtown Des Moines for non-golfers, or shopping at Valley West Mall across the street from the motel.
- Picnic in the park starting around noon. Lots of food and beverages, and games for kids, etc. Professional photographer to shoot big and small groups.
- Talent show at 7:30 p.m. (How do you get to Carnegie Hall? Practice, practice...!)

Sunday:

- Brunch and final farewells.

Web site for more contact:

Though I’ve been a champion procrastinator, I’ve finally succeeded at creating my own Homepage on the Internet. Reunion details are there... should you happen to misplace your personal copy of the “The Reunion Junction.”
