Summer Heat Returns for An Evening of Smooth Jazz Community Music Series Celebrates 15 Year Milestone

LANSING, Michigan - An Evening of Smooth Jazz is upon us and it's headed back to mid-Michigan for the 15th consecutive summer. "We're excited for everyone coming" said BMRW Promotions spokesperson Charlie Wilson.

About the upcoming event on July 26th, Wilson says there also a lot to celebrate and certainly a lot to be thankful for. He expects it to be fun and just "downright jazzy". If you attended the first performance of An Evening of Smooth Jazz in 2005 at the Hannah Community Center in East Lansing or any others in the series, then you already know about the caliber of incredible talent and the value of having the show like this in the community. BMRW Promotions has hosted GRAMMY award winners and nominees. Acclaimed contemporary jazz groups and some of the best artists on the planet have come to An Evening of Smooth Jazz and many had never performed in the greater Lansing area, like Gerald Albright, Tim Bowman, Bob Baldwin, Norman Brown, Jazz in Pink, Larry Bragg, Nick Colionne, Jackiem Joyner, Eric Darius, Phil Perry, Tom Braxton. Artists like Kimmie Horne, Tim Cunningham, Charles & Gwen Scales with Modern Tribe, Angela Davis, Penny Wells, Al McKenzie, The Miller Group, Straight Ahead, 496 West, Too Smooth 4 Notes and Impulse have all added to the special memories of fans with their talent but and most importantly, these events have excited the audience.

There's a good chance that you already know the theater's acoustics are impressive if you have attended since the event was moved to Holt in 2009 for a larger space. As a whole, really there isn't a bad seat in the house. Here's a glimpse of this year's concert celebration that takes place at 7:30 pm Friday, July 26, 2019 at the Holt High School Margaret Livensparger Theater, 5885 W. Holt Road in Holt MI with Grammy nominated guitarist Doc Powell, The Miller Group from North Carolina, Lansing's 496 West and Detroit vocalist Karla Pace.

Doc Powell performs in mid-Michigan for the first time. His signature guitar sound is sealed in music history on over 200 songs by some of the biggest artists in every genre of music and has earned him over 12 gold & platinum records. Fifteen years of recording and touring with the Pavarotti of soul Luther Vandross, has kept him at the forefront of contemporary jazz, rhythm & blues and gospel music, contributing to some of the biggest live concert tours and major recording projects by some of contemporary music giants including; Prince, Chaka Kahn, Jennifer Hudson, Mariah Carey, Alicia Keys, John Legend, Kirk Franklin, Yolanda Adams and Mary, Mary among many others. He has also been heard in television commercials, soap operas like One Life To Live and movie soundtracks such as; Down and Out In Beverly Hills, Turner & Hooch, The Goonies, Hero and The Five Heart Beats. The meeting between Powell and the late Luther Vandross catapulted them into worldwide performances and live recordings of some of Vandross biggest hits such as "Busy Body," "Give Me The Reason," "Forever, For Always, For Love," and the infamous guitar solo on the mega hit "Stop to Love." When Vandross penned "She Loves Me Back" and sang the line, "This man is the Doctor", it became Powell's formal introduction to the music world and the name would stick. The Miller Group returns from North Carolina. These fellas helped to kick off An Evening of Smooth Jazz in 2005 at the Hannah Community Center in East Lansing and if there is one thing that fans remember other than the incredible music, it is that these guys love to have fun.

A group that sprouted from this community music series is 496 West. As a collective, they have garnered a reputation of being one of the best live bands based in mid-Michigan. With soulful vocals, a powerhouse horn section, killer keys, silky strings and indispensable percussions, 496 West offers soul, smooth jazz, R&B, a sprinkling of the blues and of course, gospel jazz styles. 496 West has opened for jazz stalwarts, Grammy winners and Grammy-nominees. They performed at the Summer Solstice Jazz festival a few weeks ago and will make a few stops across Michigan with stops in Monroe, Southfield, Muskegon and Novi this summer.

Vocalist Karla Pace is a polished Native Detroit with a soulful voice. She's had the pleasure of opening for such major acts as, Anita Baker, India.Aire, Richard Street's Temptation, Howie Mandell, LL Cool J, Buster Rhymes, Alexander O'Neil and Musiq Soulchild just to name a few. Longtime community partners and supporters are associated with this music series. Dean Transportation has been on board before the first note was played. The Michigan Bulletin has covered every event. Budget Printing has supported local ticket sales. A repeat attendee with front row seats purchased the first ticket for the July 26th show 5 years ago -enthusiast James Butler. Many have volunteered for 8-12 years. BMRW Promotions sees music as a vital and powerful language in the community's cultural heritage. The group supports this by providing affordable opportunities for audiences and a platform for artists to preserve the jazz art form. Hosting music events like this one in the schools is also a perfect way to demonstrate jazz as a valid expression for students to create and express themselves in a global environment.

Local students have also shared special experiences through informal interaction with the artists and technical crew. Many have participated in the production and engaged in unique learning of the arts, through first-hand experiences in stage management, sound, lighting or event management. About 28 students participated in a special Math and Music Camp held in Lansing and several individuals and groups have also performed including Dennis Johnson, the Shabazz Choir under the direction of Joshua Hicks before heading to the Cherry Festival in Washington DC, Kaleb Crowell, Kennedy Robinson, Morgan Quinney-Naval, Sophia Simons, Ayendie Pulliam and several MSU Jazz Studies students.

"BMRW Promotions is proud to provide a platform for incredibly talented instrumentalists and soulful vocalists", said Wilson "It's our 15th year for An Evening of Smooth Jazz; it's our 10th year in the beautiful Margaret Livensparger Theater. We have people returning from other parts of the country and a lot of first timers. We've got a lot of music, a lot of celebrating and a lot of memories to make". That all said, tickets are available at www.BMRWpromotions.com, at Budget Printing on Trowbridge Road in East Lansing and by phone at 517-372-7246.

Why Come to the Mackinaw Island Conference? Our 2020 To Do List – The Mackinac Policy Conference

By Dichondra Johnson, Michigan Bulletin Contributor

Detroit Regional Chamber unveiled its 2019 Mackinac Policy Conference (MPC) To-Do List following three days of discussions featuring top state, regional, and national thought leaders. Chamber President and CEO Sandy Baruah discussed the Chambers recommended goals concluding the 39th annual Conference.

“The Mackinac Policy Conference is Michigan’s premier policy event. While we don’t make policy, we bring together statewide leadership to have honest and engaging conversations on the critical issues facing our state.” Baruah said.

The Chamber hosts the nationally recognized Conference, convening more than 1,700 of Michigan’s top leadership. Black attendees represent a growing, but small number of participating leaders. Making it even more important Michigan black professionals— especially those passionate about the impact of policy in Michigan – take part in the ritual of attending MPC consistently each year.

MPC is a critical destination for both burgeoning young and more seasoned professional black professionals. We must continue to invest in our own personal career growth. This not-to-miss event in political leadership is also a key destination for business owners to get coveted face time with key decision makers, all while sharing a casual buggy ride on the no car Island.

From an African-American perspective, our to do list must be to grow our own presence in critical policy discussions that have direct impact on our Michigan communities. We must be and stay in the room to be a voice in Michigan’s democracy.

Mackinaw Lansing Reception Attendees Councilman, Peter Spadafore, Dichondra Johnson, and Lansing Mayor Schor.

Please the Lord when you Sell

This program will help you undo financial bondage.

sure you use methods that please the LORD when you go about selling yourself, goods, and services to other people.

Please pray for this ministry and email me with any questions. May the LORD bless you richly as you follow His plan!

Nehemiah 5:7-13, Proverbs 11:25-27, 16:1-3, 1Corinthians 8:9, James 4:17

On earth, to have a job, hold a job, and be promoted throughout life a person must sell his / her willingness to work, skills, abilities, and/or accomplishments. Action in this regard takes many different forms from filling out job applications with many employers to starting entrepreneurial ventures that require the sale of products and services to other people in order to earn income and build wealth from your endeavors. Such abundant blessing and rewards do not come to or remain with the slothful and lazy.

Please forward these bondage-breaking articles to other people who can use helpful insight!

Some have chosen to provide defective products, shoddy service, and lie about benefits and guarantees in order to make the sale, however you don’t have to and should not sell products and services deceitfully. God will give you peace and joy and meet all your need according to His riches in glory when you operate in the utmost integrity. Your use of self-control to always display honest business dealings will show that you are a citizen of Heaven who understands you only reside on earth temporarily in anticipation of moving into the heavenly home the LORD prepared for you once you leave earth.

It is necessary to sell yourself, products, and services in a manner and for an end that pleases God and helps other people in order to be the witness God intends you to be to lead other people to Christ. When your integrity causes a job, project, or bid to pass you by, God will bring other opportunities your way that will allow you to stay within His will, abundantly provide for you, and keep you under His protective covering where you will be immune from the earthly and spiritual liabilities associated with criminal, illegal, unethical, and immoral practices. Such ungodly practices set the table for sudden collapse and destruction of your life, business, and reputation. So, make

NOW, TODAY, IS THE DAY OF HOLY SPIRIT GRACE, PRESENCE, AND AWARENESS. BE STILL AND LISTEN TO HEAR HER VOICE

"Are you tired? Worn out? Burned out on religion? Come to me. Get away with me and you'll recover your life. I'll show you how to take a real rest. Walk with me and work with me—watch how I do it. Learn the unforced rhythms of grace. I won't lay anything heavy or ill-fitting on you. Keep company with me and you'll learn to live freely and lightly." Matthew 11:28-30 The Message

And God: As the clouds of volcanic ash and wild fires rise toward the heavens, so rises the incidents of hate crimes, stinking thinking, vile disclosure of past indiscretions, deadly silent churches, and venomous tweets. I KNOW Your Grace is favoring us to awake and seek first Your Realm and Righteousness. Yet the question warrants repeating "How long?"

365 times You command us "FEAR NOT." Surely, this is the simplest of commandments to embrace. Granted, it takes daily repetition so as not to fear; so as to keep my heart open; so as to drain the venom coming from that snake of ol'... That ol' snake that slithers its way into the soul of humanity with venomous thoughts that become the deeds of humanity-at-large; even in the church. O, yes, our silence gives leave for the malicious-evil spreading throughout the world and smothering our Light under a bushel of fear.

I say to you who proclaim "I am the church," what about the blasphemous misuse of Holy Writ by the Trump Administrator and Administration? I ask of you who claim to be saved, sanctified, and filled with the Holy Ghost, why are you so quiet about loving mercy and doing justice? What shall come of you who are educators, preachers, community leaders, and faith-based Rabbi's, Iman's, and Ministers? In the words of Esther 4:14, paraphrased, "If you stay silent during this time, deliverance...will come from somewhere, but you, my child, and all of your father's family will die [is dying]. And who knows? Perhaps you have been made queen [a leader] for such a time as this."

I submit that Jesus's invitation is to rest in Him WHILE you work, daily recite FEAR NOT, and regularly OPEN YOUR HEART AND DRAIN THE VENOM.

Pray with me: Open my mouth, Lord, to speak Truth to power with Love. O Lamb of God I come where the due drops of mercy shine bright; So as to let my little light overpower the fear of darkness and the violence that fills the vacuum of silence...all while resting in Thee.

THE REALS OF JUSTICE

Where Can I Smoke My Weed?

By Ayanna D. Neal

Ayanna Neal

Recreational use of marijuana was legalized in Michigan after voters approved Proposal 1, creating the Michigan Regulation and Taxation of Marihuana (MRTMA) on December 6, 2018. So, where can one smoke one's marijuana? You can only smoke marijuana in private. It is illegal, a civil infraction punishable by a $100 fine, to consume marijuana in public. There isn't much clarity regarding what is considered "in public." Some say, "My front porch is where I like to smoke my marijuana because it's private property." But some people have said they've done this but ended up with law enforcement contact. Yes, your porch is private property but is in public view. Some good advice for such a situation is to consume marijuana inside your home or inside some other private property that allows it. A landlord can prohibit marijuana consumption so be sure to read your lease to know whether you can consume marijuana in your home if you're a tenant. And if you're a college student who lives on campus in a dorm or other college housing you should definitely know the college or university's policy because many colleges and universities have drug-free policies which would prohibit you from consuming or possessing marijuana on college property. The same is true regarding your motor vehicle. Consuming marijuana in a vehicle is prohibited by the (MRTMA). But the MRTMA doesn't specify what the penalty is for such a violation. The MRTMA also prohibits consuming marijuana while driving. This is not the same as driving under the influence of marijuana. Driving under the influence of marijuana is a crime with possible fines and incarceration just like operating while intoxicated by the consumption of alcohol (OWI). You shouldn't smoke marijuana during work lunch or any other work breaks. Employers own or own the use of their property and can ban marijuana consumption or possession on their property and in their facilities just like a ban on smoking cigarettes. Most employers have a policy that bans being high while working. Employers can do drug testing even though marijuana is legal. An employer can discipline or even terminate an employee for a positive test. It is always best to check with the employer regarding their policy for controlled substances. Some employers do drug testing prior to hiring an employee. Each employer is different as to whether they'll hire a person with a positive marijuana test. A lot of employers have no tolerance policies for controlled substances and some employers may do work for the federal government, which prohibits consumption and possession of marijuana because both are illegal federally, and the feds are prohibiting from contracting with companies who don't follow federal law. If it's a job you really want to get or want to keep and there is a policy against controlled substance consumption, or you don't know what the policy is it's probably a good idea to go on a timeout from marijuana. Before you light up make sure you're somewhere you can legally fire it up.
