

WARREN POLICE EXPLORERS

GENTIAN MARKU POST #586

Exploring

Exploring is a division of the Boy Scouts of America aimed at young men and woman between the ages of 14 and 20 who are interested in careers in law enforcement.

Explorers meet throughout the entire year for various hands-on training exercises. Explorers also volunteer at various events throughout the city including the Warren City Fair, local festivals, and Concerts in the Park.

OUR STORY

The Explorer Program allows youth to explore a future in law enforcement and to gain skills to become a responsible, ethical, and community oriented adults. It also reinforces fundamental principles such as good citizenship, morals, accountability, and leadership.

Through a partnership with the Warren Police Department, students will learn about what police officers do, receive hands-on experience and real career information.

