ILR/ALSA and Class Information

- This is an ILR-SD and ALSA Sanctioned Show
- Double Points Halter Show, double show fees apply for both ILR and ALSA, see registration form.
- Sanctioned classes will follow the 23rd Edition of the ALSA Handbook, plus updates, except the rules governing youth showing intact males, which will follow ILR, since it is more restrictive.
- Youth age: Youth age is determined as of 1/1/2026. Sub-Junior is under 7 years old, Junior is 7-11 years old, Intermediate is 12-14 years old, Senior is 15-19 years old.
- Junior Youth may not show an intact male that is 18 months or older (per ILR-SD rules).
- All llamas and alpacas participating in sanctioned classes must be registered with the ILR to be shown. Name must match the registration certificate. No pending ILR registrations.
- Please provide a copy of the ILR registration and ALSA registration with entry form.
- All llamas and alpacas must be at least 5 months old to be shown.
- All animals must be checked in before the show starts on Saturday at 8am and stay for the entire show.
- Nursing llama and alpaca mothers may not be accompanied in the show ring with their crias.
- Exhibitors must be the registered owner of the llama, or submit a signed Permission to Show Form
- ILR Registered alpacas may show in the ILR-SD Performance classes. Alpacas not registered with the ILR may compete in the Open Alpaca classes.
- Class numbers ending in 'N' are non-sanctioned classes.
- To participate in the Argentine Championship classes, the llama must be at least 50% Argentine.
- Classes may be combined, at the discretion of show management or judges.
- Once the show starts, llamas may not be moved from one class to another, except at the discretion of the judges.
- Performance Package (non-youth), includes PR/Pack/Obstacle
- The Complete Package (non-youth) includes Halter/Performance/Showmanship/Fleece
- Produce of Dam, Get of Sire, Argentine Championship, and Open Llama/Alpaca classes are not included in any package.
- For the Youth or Adult Special Needs Obstacle classes, the exhibitor may be assisted on the course, but the animal may not be assisted by anyone other than the exhibitor. Special needs is defined by the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).
- There will be four Best In Show Halter awards (One Best In Show Male and Female per judge), plus Best In Show Walking Fleece, and Best in Show Shorn Fleece.

- We will also have the On/Off award for Walking and Shorn Fleece
- Llamas and alpacas coming into Colorado from another state need to have a CVI (Certificate of Veterinarian Inspection) issued by an accredited veterinarian within 30 days of entry to the state, and a USDA-compliant 840 microchips or 840 RFID tags are required and must be written directly on the CVI. The animal must be treated for scabies with an Ivermectin-like product within 21 days prior to entry to the state. If your llama originates from or travels through a New World Screwworm (NWS) infested state or zone, additional emergency entry mandates from the Colorado Department of Agriculture apply. No animals with active NWS myiasis are allowed.
- Entries due by 9/08/2026, late fee of $25 for entries after that date. No entries accepted after 9/20/2026.

Youth Information

- Returning again this year for Youth! Youth All Around Champion! The All Around Champion will be awarded to the top youth from Showmanship/Performance/FallamaFest Quest.
- Discounted clinic prices for Youth! (see registration form)
- Youth package includes Performance/Showmanship/FallamaFest Quest
- Use of a llama/alpaca by more than one youth is strongly discouraged. It may be allowed, at the discretion of the Show Superintendent, as long as the animal is shared by no more than two youth and those youth are not competing in the same age division.
- Youth may show in either Youth Performance or Novice, Advanced, or Masters, but not in both unless a different llama is used.

Facility Information

- Stalls can be used for tack or animals. Stalls are 10'x10', and are outdoor and partially enclosed.
- Bring your own bedding - Acceptable bedding types – straw, shavings, expandable wood pellets. All other types of bedding are prohibited.
- Wash racks are NOT available onsite.
- Power is not available in the stall areas, water is available in tanks next to the stalls.
- Pet Policy – Please keep all pets on a leash and clean up after your pets.

General Show Information

- Dry camping is available on the facility grounds, no charge, Friday through Sunday (must leave by Sunday, end of day). No hookups on site. Water is available near the barn.
- We'll have a food truck at the event on Saturday and Sunday. El Lopez Mexican Food & More.
- We'll have one clinic this year, on Friday, Sep 25, 2026 – Camelid Nutrition with Dr. Balch
- We'll be having a free pizza party on Friday. Please sign up on the registration form so we can ensure we have enough pizza for everyone! Bring your own drinks for the pizza party.
- If there are any special needs or special requests, please email them to fallamafest@gmail.com
- For the public participation event on Saturday, please bring an animal to share with the public. We want to share our love of these animals with the public! We'll also have a small obstacle course set up. We're not sure how many public attendees we'll have this year.
- Discounted FallamaFest shirts/hoodies are available for pre-order on the registration form to be picked up at the show. We'll only have a limited number of shirts to purchase during the show. Be sure to pre-order your merchandise to make sure you get the size/color that you want!

- Sponsorships are appreciated, and can be added to the registration form. Sponsorships keep our show going from year to year.
- Please consider donating an item for the Silent Auction and participating in the Silent Auction. We will have an area set up in the barn for bidding.
- This year, registration and payments are completed online! If you have any issues, email us at fallamafest@gmail.com, or call or text Julie Hall at 303-910-2134.
- Also returning again this year – Ship to Show with Useful Llama Items! We are partnering with Useful Llama Items, Inc. and their "Free Ship to Shows Program"! With this program, you can pre-order products that you want/need in advance of the show and Useful Llama Items will send them to the show with no shipping charges! You can conveniently pick your orders up right at the show! You can contact Useful Llama Items, Inc. with any questions you might have about this great opportunity.
