How To Read The Energy Map That Surrounds You And Work With The Universe To Transform Your Thoughts
Into Action Using Qi Men Dun Jia

If you had to give up all but ONE of your senses, which would it be?

Would it be smell, taste, touch, hearing, or sight? These five traditionally recognized methods of perception are based on specific sensory organs. Each of us may enjoy the five bodily senses differently depending on various external stimulation and our personal preferences.

Let's dig deeper.

What about your sense of knowing a.k.a. your instincts?

“Going with your gut feeling,” isn't a popular decision-making tagline and often implies uncertainty. Though one's sense of knowing is the mind doing its magic – Combining logic and emotion (intuition) when making decisions of any kind. Our ability to feel, enables us to know things without conscious reasoning.

No one taught a baby how to cry, did they?

Have you thought about this?

Now, what about your sense of self?

The inner cosmos is a little more complex and a little deeper inside each of us. It's in our souls. One's sense of self is borne out of a no-mind state (when you do and think of nothing!) and enter into the higher purpose world of energy and vibrations (Qi).

Qi (氣), like time, is dynamic and cyclical.

Qi (氣) is the energy that fuels our universe and everything in it. It is the spiritual currency you need to reach out to your inner cosmos.

In the clarity of our inner cosmos, we will discover our higher purpose –

*Why did that happen?
Why do I feel this way?
Why am I here?*

The grandfather of all the Why's in your life will be answered.

THAT is when we are awoken by clarity and begin walking the path of self-realization.

Okay. So tell me what exactly is Qi and where will it lead me to?

What exactly is Qi?

Qi (氣)
pronounced as 'chee'

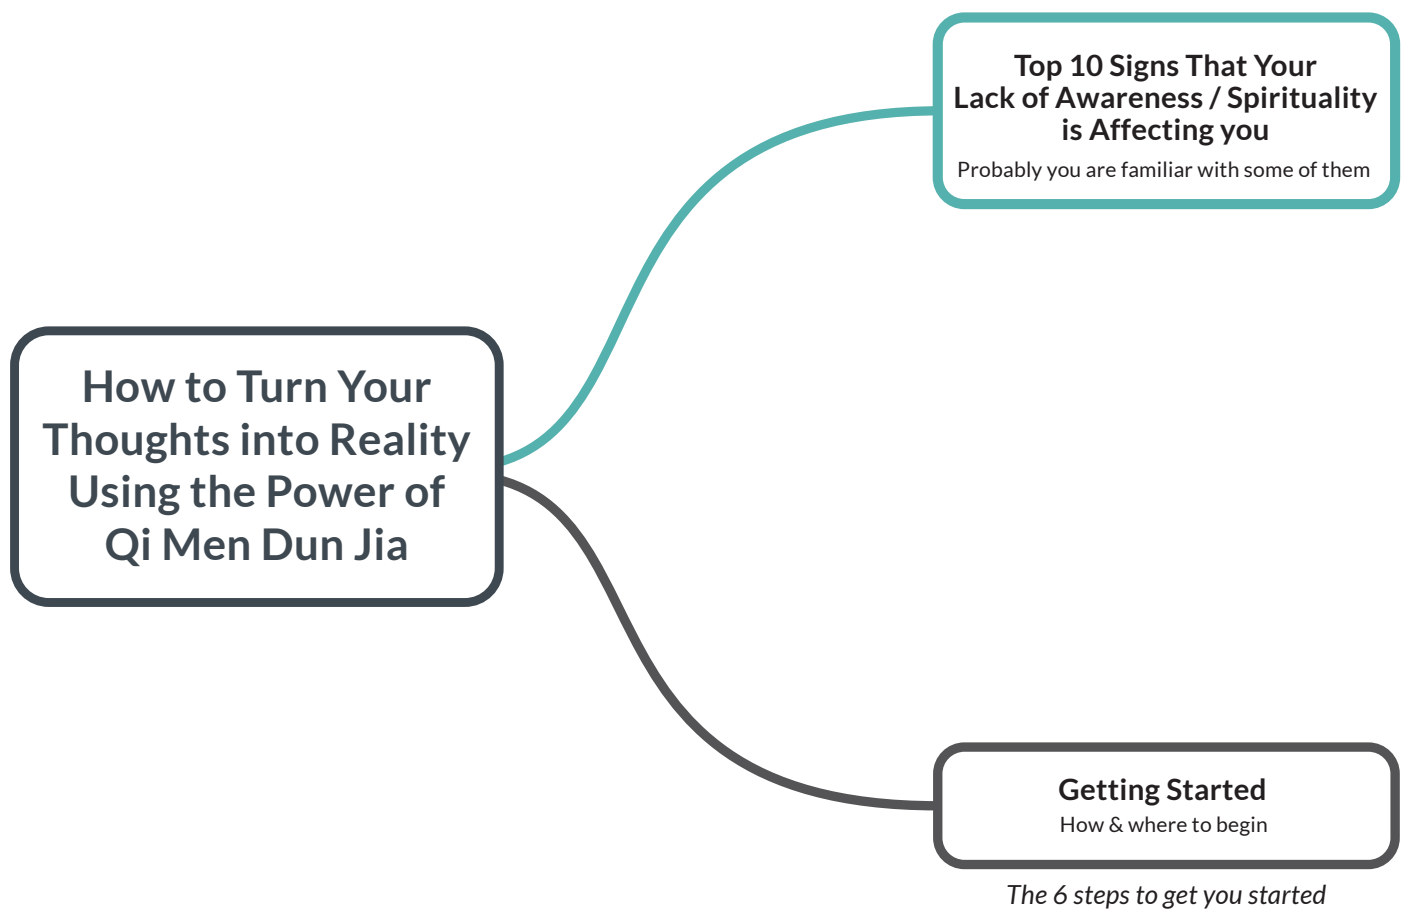

Some people call it spirits

It is the invisible force that shapes, nurtures and governs all living
beings

Think of it as the life blood that runs through our veins

It is the spiritual currency of the 4
Realms. Spirit, Heaven, Earth, Man

So, how does “Qi” leads to turning my thoughts into reality?

Getting Started

The Spiritual Awakening Blueprint

Step 1

Concept of Qi & The Law of Equivalent Exchange

What is the Law of Equivalent Exchange?

The law of equivalent exchange is defined as an equal amount of value in terms of ENERGY must be given in return for what you desire. The energy we are talking about here is Qi.

→ Your Energy

Qi is something that can't be seen nor heard but it can be felt around us. It is the invisible force that governs, shapes and nurtures all living beings.

As humans, we are all energy beings and so is the universe. Like blood running through our veins, Qi is the life-force of the universe and all living being around us. It also functions as your spiritual currency when you are dealing the 4 Realms of Qi Men Dun Jia.

Step 2

The Origin of Your Energy

What can you do?

To connect spiritually, you must first attune yourself with your surroundings and only then you will be on your way to elevating your consciousness to a whole new level.

As energy beings, we humans (you and I) emit unique vibrations. These frequencies can be observed and therefore studied. And this is how we differentiate our characteristics.

Here's the thing, in Qi Men Dun Jia, there are four realms – the Heaven, Earth, Man, and Spiritual realms. Did you know that these vibrations you emit are closely related to the Spiritual Realm of Qi Men Dun Jia?

Well now you do.

Step 4

Your Energy = Your Superpower

How many superpowers are there?

There are 10 Super Powers in the Spirit Realm

Step 6

Understand the Superpower you possess a.k.a your Deity

The Chief and the Black Tortoise are the two most powerful deities and are complete opposites when it comes to abilities and characteristics in the realm of Qi Men Dun Jia. Similarly, in the universe of Star Wars, we can learn a lot from two different superpowers.

Imagine Obi-Wan Kenobi and Darth Sidious.

符

CHIEF

Obi-Wan Kenobi

Obi-Wan Kenobi was one of the few Jedi who survived the wrath of the Sith. But he soon became instrumental in keeping the Jedi Order intact after the fall of the galactic republic and help lay a foundation for a new Jedi Order.

Similar to The Chief, Obi-Wan was a true leader in every aspect. He empowers others to think for themselves. This was evident in the case of Luke and Han, where Obi-Wan instilled the belief in them to listen to his counsels.

He was an emphatic leader, who reflected his merciful nature and ability to nurture everyone around him. Obi-Wan also firmly believed in striving to do what is morally right. In short, he was a charismatic and noble commander.

Darth Sidious

On the other hand, Darth Sidious dealt in absolutes. His personality is a mirror image of the Black Tortoise. Vader is highly adaptable and extremely intelligent. But, he is also competent in concealing his intentions. Similar to a tortoise hiding beneath its shell, Darth Sidious' true intentions were concealed under the disguise of Senator Palpatine.

Sidious was a master manipulator who was talented in distorting the truth, deceiving those around him, and ultimately brought upon the downfall of the Jedi Order and became the Emperor of the Galactic Empire.

As notorious as it may sound, the qualities Darth Sidious possessed were extremely useful. Mysteriously intelligent with an intuitive mind made him an excellent strategist.
