07/19/24	E2	15	Unit E2, Week 15 for sale. My brother and I have owned our French Ridge unit since 1987. We have thoroughly enjoyed the unit and our time spent in Breckenridge. The week oftentimes has fallen during Spring break or the Easter holiday making for a nice family vacation. There are many activities to enjoy in Breckenridge to include Spring skiing. Most activities are within walking distance of the unit (shopping, restaurants/bars, art galleries etc.). The weather varies with sunny days and some snow days. The unit is two story with 2 bedrooms, two baths and washer/dryer area upstairs. The living room has a large deck with views of the ski slopes and mountainside. The unit sleeps 6 comfortably (sleeper sofa in the living room), full kitchen, % bath and fireplace downstairs. There is parking onsite making for much appreciated convenience. Asking price $3,000 obo and buyer to pay closing costs.
01/12/18	H2	15	Unit H2, Week 15 for sale. I have owned my French Ridge Timeshare since 1985. Many years the week is Spring Break or Easter break, a really nice family vacation time with tons of activities available in Breckenridge. Beautiful Spring skiing and sunny weather. This unit is a 2 story condo with 2 upstairs bedrooms with separate baths and a sleeper couch downstairs. The Master has a large deck with mountain views. The unit sleeps 6, has a full kitchen, fire place, 2 ½ baths. It is on the bus route to the slopes! and walking distance to downtown restaurants, shops, microbreweries and art galleries. Parking onsite. It is an RCI property and I do have weeks/points banked for the new owner to have multiple weeks. We have mainly used the banked time to trade into other resorts, as my family lives in Colorado. It has good trade value for interested parties. I am asking $3500 obo.
