National Monument

The Tugu Negara is a National Monument that commemorates those who died in Malaysia's struggle for freedom, principally against the Japanese occupation during World War II and the Malayan Emergency, which lasted from 1948 until 1960. It is located in the Federal capital, Kuala Lumpur. The Malaysian Houses of Parliament is situated near the monument.

Day 3 : GENTING HIGHLAND

(B)

- After breakfast, check out hotel & proceed to Genting Highland
- Enroute Batu Caves
- Upon arrival, full day at Genting Skyworlds Theme Park
- Evening, back to Kuala Lumpur

Batu Caves is an iconic and popular tourist attraction in Selangor. Site of a Hindu temple and shrine, Batu Caves attracts thousands of worshippers and tourists, especially during the annual Hindu festival, Thaipusam. A limestone outcrop located just north of Kuala Lumpur, Batu Caves has three main caves featuring temples and Hindu shrines. Its main attraction is the large statue of the Hindu God at the entrance, besides a steep 272 climb up its steps to finally view the stunning skyline of the city centre. Monkeys frolic around the caves, and it is a popular spot for rock climbing enthusiasts. Paintings and scenes of Hindu Gods can also be seen in the Ramayana Cave.

Rising spectacularly from the Titiwangsa mountain range at over a mile high. Genting Highlands is a hill resort teeming with theme parks and accolades of being known as the 'Fun City Above the Clouds'. Your exciting day begins the moment you set foot in the gaming floor, play the slot machines and table games. With a wide range of gaming options, you can never go wrong with the choices here. Many of Pahang's skyscrapers can be found in this city.

Genting SkyWorlds will take visitors on a sky-high adventure through nine movie and adventure inspired "worlds"- Eagle Mountain, Central Park, Liberty Lane, Robots Rivet Town, Andromeda Base, Ice Age, Studio Plaza, Epic and Rio. Each world features a host of exciting rides and attractions - specially curated and designed to send imaginations soaring through an immersive experience. This is complemented by a unique array of themed retail, dining and entertainment experiences, providing a truly holistic and unforgettable experience for the entire family.
