PETER CHAND PRESS PACK

BIO

International Storyteller Peter Chand has enthralled audiences both near and far with his skilfully told tales, specialising in traditional tales from his Indian background.

As a trainer of high repute he has helped many Storytellers, Public Speakers, Teachers and Corporate employees to gain confidence in storytelling, public speaking and presentation skills.

Peter regularly visits his family in the Punjab, India and collects traditional stories and translates them into English.

Alongside this specialism he also has an ever-growing repertoire of world stories which he shares in schools, festivals, libraries, theatres, and cultural events across Britain and further afield.

Peter has recently been awarded an Honorary Fellowship from the University of Wolverhampton for championing Global Majority Heritage Storytelling around the world.
