

Please note during times of rush hour food may come out sooner for tables with ticket orders of phở soups only.

Stir-fry dishes are spectacular in that each order is individually crafted by our dedicated wok warriors.

This cooking process takes a lengthier time to be prepared to reach the state of impeccable yumminess.

The phở broth takes countless of hours to build complex flavors. While preparing the broth takes many hours, creating the phở bowl itself is a much swifter process.

We are committed to give everyone quick and friendly service. Please allow us adequate time to prepare your dish to satisfaction.
