

Weather Cancellation Policy for MFVH

Winter weather is a part of living in Maine and with the winter weather upon us, please note the following Weather Cancellation Policy for MFVH.

Your safety is of the first and most importance.

We understand that sometimes weather can be unexpected. In the event that poor weather conditions result in unsafe travel conditions for you, please call the office and we will reschedule your pet's appointment. No fees will be issued for cancellations or rescheduling due to weather, at any time, provided you contact us prior to your appointment. Every effort will be made to reschedule your pet's appointment as soon as possible.
