Professional Summary

- Certified with the Intimacy Professionals Association (IPA)
SAG- AFTRA Accredited course.
- Listed on the BECTU IC REGISTRY

Jessie Fell (she/her) is a certified Intimacy Coordinator for Film & TV. She trained under Amanda Blumenthal with the SAG-AFTRA accredited Intimacy Professionals Association (IPA) and has also completed extensive training with Intimacy Directors and Coordinators (IDC).

Jessie has over fifteen years' experience in the industry as a HOD, in HETV & film, working on productions for HBO Max, Amazon Prime, BBC, Apple TV, Channel 4 and Sky Atlantic. She encourages a safe & collaborative space on set, where everyone can thrive creatively during intimate scenes. Her unique set of skills, enable her to negotiate sympathetically between everyone involved in a production with sensitivity, understanding and humour.

With a comprehensive understanding of production dynamics and qualification in MHFA (Mental Health First Aid), she is able to work effectively in both high-stress and time-sensitive filming environments. Jessie has specialised training in a number of areas, such as trauma-informed care, kink & BDSM, diversity & inclusion and Intimacy & disability. As a mixed race, queer individual she is aware of the importance of diversity and inclusion (of all kinds) within the industry.

Jessie also has a background in movement and performance. She has specific IPA training in choreography for intimate scenes as well as training in movement direction and choreology with experts Viola Bruni and Olga Masleinnkova.
