

AKC Ring Stewards

PERSON WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE SMOOTH RUNNING OF A SPECIFIC RING; FOR EXAMPLE, ASSEMBLING THE CLASSES, DISTRIBUTING ARMBANDS, ETC., THEREBY ENABLING THE JUDGE TO CONCENTRATE ON JUDGING THE DOGS.

Ring Steward Duties

- Distribute armbands to exhibitors (or arrange them on the self-serve table).
- Check off picked-up armbands in the Steward's Book.
- Call dogs into the ring.
- Let the Judge know if there are any absent dogs.
- Pull ribbons needed for the dogs in the ring.
- If asked, tell the Judge a dog's birthdate from Steward's Book.
- Write 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th placements in Steward's Book next to armband #s.
- Write the winners' numbers in the Steward's Book in the appropriate spaces.
- If a dog makes a mess in the ring, provide cleaning supplies to the exhibitor. (The exhibitor should clean up the mess but the steward can help by holding the dog's leash.)
- Set up or have someone set up the table or ramp when needed.

Checking In

At the beginning of the show day, check in with the Chief Ring Steward (CRS) at the Club Table.

- Check in at least 15 minutes prior to your scheduled time.
- Let the CRS know you have arrived.
- Tell the CRS of any new conflicts that may have arisen since your last communication.
- You should have received a schedule by email, but things happen and people get sick, etc. Always check to make sure there are no changes to your ring assignments. A copy of the most current Ring Steward Schedule should be at the Club Table.

The Steward's Bag

The Show Superintendent prepares a Steward's Bag specifically for each ring containing:

- A roll of ribbons
- Armbands
- Steward's Book (or 2 books)
- Show Catalog
- Rubber bands
- Pens
- Steward's badge
- Walkie-talkie

If you are opening a ring at the beginning of the day or after the lunch break, collect the Steward's Bag for your ring from the Superintendent's table.

Return the items in the Steward's Bag to the Superintendent's table before closing down the ring for lunch and at the end of the day. Do not leave them unattended at the ring.

The Judge's Table

Lay out the roll of ribbons on the Judge's Table inside the ring.

The Steward's Table

Place the Steward's Book, catalog, armbands, rubber bands, and pens on the Steward's Table, which is just outside the ring. (The Superintendent may provide two copies of the Steward's Book. Sometimes two Stewards work a ring: one hands out arm bands while the other pulls ribbons and calls dogs into the ring. Otherwise, exhibitors can look through the second book.)

Additional Supplies

Each ring should also have:

- Cleaning basket containing a spray bottle of cleaner, roll of paper towels, disinfectant wipes.
- Soft cooler bag containing bottled water or other drink (as requested by the Judge) and snacks for the Judge.
- Thermos of coffee or hot water for tea, if requested by the Judge.
- Judge's basket containing hand sanitizer, first aid kit, notepad, pen, etc.

These items should be placed in the rings by the show workers by 7:30 am each morning of the show.

Hand Out Armbands

- Check off each armband next to the dog's number in the Steward's Book as you hand it out.
- Note absent dogs next to their number in the Steward's Book. (Keep in mind that exhibitors can be mistaken about absentee dogs unless they actually own the dog. Do not accept the word of another exhibitor that a dog is absent. You can't always be certain a dog is absent until they fail to enter the ring when called.)

Sire XXXXXXX. Owner XXXXXXX.

12 ✓ Name XXXXX. #XXXXXXXX. Birthday XXXXXXX. Breeder XXXXXXXXXXX. Dam XXXXXXX.

Note: Superintendents arrange the armbands for each breed by number, and bundle them with a rubber band. They then arrange the bundles in the order that the breeds show in the ring. Keeping the armbands arranged this way makes it easier to distribute them. Try not to mix them up!

Hand Out Armbands, cont.

- Exhibitors may ask to see how many armbands have been checked off in your book. This is fine as long as it doesn't interfere with your other duties or slow you down.
- Once the dogs have entered the ring and you know for sure that a dog is absent, note the absence on that armband and place it in a pile on the Judge's Table. The judge needs to mark absent dogs in the Judge's Book and this pile can help the judge make sure none are overlooked.

Note: Always be polite, even if exhibitors are occasionally rude or demanding. Remember, they are often under a lot of pressure. More importantly, you represent the club so it is important to always be polite and patient regardless of provocation.

Move-Ups

Exhibitors who finish their dog's championship on one day of a show may move the dog up from the classes to the Best of Breed competition for the following day. If an exhibitor tells you this is the case:

- Give the exhibitor the armband.
- Make a note in the Stewards Book of the move up if it hasn't already been noted by the Superintendent.
- Confirm with the Judge that the Superintendent has made the change in the Judge's Book. If the Judge's Book has not been changed to show the move-up, use the walkie-talkie to call the Superintendent to come to your ring. The Superintendent needs to resolve the problem before judging begins for that breed.
- Call the moved-up dog into the ring for the Best of Breed Competition in numerical order with the other specials.

Table and Ramp

- If a breed requires a table or ramp, or if the Judge requests one, move it into the ring. You may ask someone outside the ring to help you.
- Ask the Judge where they would like the table or ramp to be placed. Most prefer it where dogs are examined but just off the matt so it won't be in the way when the dogs go around the ring.
- Remove the table or ramp from the ring when the Judge has finished judging the breed or breeds that need it.

Call Dogs Into the Ring

- Before the first class, ask the Judge how they prefer dogs to line up when they enter the ring.
- At ring time (and not before), refer to the Steward's Book and announce the breed and the first class.
("Dalmatians, puppies 6 to 9 months, numbers 3 and 5.")
- If an armband was not picked up, call the number at least twice. ("#9 has not picked up. Last call for #9!" Or, "#9 was reported absent. Last call for #9!")

Note: Speak up! Shout! It is noisy around the rings and exhibitors will appreciate being able to hear you.

Ribbons

As soon as the dogs have entered the ring, pull the ribbons the Judge will need for that class. For example, if there are two class dogs, just pull a blue ribbon and a red ribbon.

During the Judging

- After you call a class into the ring and have pulled the ribbons, continue handing out armbands.
- Keep an eye on the Judge's progress.
- If a dog makes a mess in the ring, provide the exhibitor with cleaning supplies. It's the exhibitor's responsibility to clean the mess, although you can help out by holding the dog's leash.

Record the Class Winners

While the Judge is distributing ribbons, write the placements in the Steward's Book by the dog's number/name. This is an essential back-up to the judge's book in case there is a question.

Winners Dog

- After the Judge has judged all the classes for the male dogs, call the first-place winner of each class back in the ring for Winners Dog judging.
- Call the winners back in the ring in the reverse order the classes were judged. For example, Puppies 6 – 9 were judged first and Open Dogs was the last class, but for WD, the Open Dog should be at the front of the line and the 6 – 9 month puppy at the end of the line.
- To help keep track of the winners and the order in which they will be needed, many Ring Stewards note the 1st- and 2nd-place winners in the Steward's Book in the order they will need to be called back in the ring for Winners Dog. In this example, call 11, 19, and 5 back into the ring to compete for Winners Dog.

WINNERS DOG 19 RESERVE 3

In this example, Winners Dog was #19 from the 12 – 18 Month Dogs. So, the Ring Steward called in the second-place winner from 12 – 18 Month Dogs, #3, to compete against the first-place winners from the other classes, and the Judge awarded him Reserve Winners Dog.

Winners & Reserve Winners Ribbons

Only One Class

If there is only one class for dogs, the first-place winner is automatically Winners Dog and the second-place winner is automatically Reserve Winners Dog. So, pull 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th place ribbons and also Winners Dog and Reserve Winners Dog.

And if this is the only class entered for this breed, WD will also be Best of Breed!

Bitch Classes & Winners Bitch

Repeat the procedures for the male class dogs and Winners Dog for the class bitches and Winners Bitch.

Best of Breed

- Call the dogs into the ring for the BOB competition. Most judges prefer the male specials to come in first, followed by the female specials. Usually, males have odd numbers and bitches are even, but not always. Superintendents usually list the entries in this order, but not always. Last is Winners Dog followed by Winners Bitch.
- Pull ribbons for Best of Breed, Best of Winners, Best Opposite Sex, Select Dog and Select Bitch, and Best Owner-Handled as needed. (For example, if there is only one sex in the ring, you don't need Best Opposite Sex. If only one sex was entered in the classes, you don't need Best of Winners, etc.)
- Note the winners in the appropriate spaces in the Steward's Book.

- Pull an Owner-Handled Ribbon along with BOB, etc.
- Let the Judge know which dogs are OH when they are awarding ribbons.

Best of Breed Ribbons

Requests

- If an exhibitor arrives late to the ring during judging and requests to enter, ask the Judge for permission. Wait until the judge is between functions. Don't interrupt if the judge is busy. Note: If all the dogs have already been examined, the answer is no.
- If a handler comes up to the ring during judging and requests to replace another handler in the ring, ask the Judge for permission to allow the change. Note: If the dog has already been examined, the handler can't be replaced.
- If any of the exhibitors want photos of their wins and the Judge has time, use the Walkie-Talkie to request a photographer to come to the ring. (However, the exhibitors often prefer to have photos taken in front of the club's backdrop. That is up to them and the Judge.) Note: If the Judge is running behind, photos may have to wait for the lunch break or before the Groups. Do not hold up the judging schedule for photos.
- If you or the Judge need anything (more water, etc.), use the Walkie-talkie to ask for it.
- If you need a break, use the Walkie-talkie to ask for someone to relieve you.
