~~Half Day PM: 11:55-3:25~~

1. No Bargaining Unit Member will be scheduled to teach as a substitute during said Bargaining Unit Member's regular workday except in cases of emergency or those absences lasting one hour or less. "Emergency" is defined as those things which occur unexpectedly during the confines of the same workday in which the substitute is required. If no substitute is available, the District will first seek volunteers for substitute service. If no volunteers are available, assignments of substitute duty will be made on an equitable basis from among available Bargaining Unit Members. A half-day substitute should be hired for any scheduled event that requires any Bargaining Unit Member to miss two (2) or more periods/or hours of class.

2. An elementary Bargaining Unit Member, who takes extra students because no substitute is available will be compensated, ~~$10-$13~~ $10 per extra student per day and ~~prorated for half days. The following schedule:~~
3. ~~Secondary~~ Bargaining Unit Members, curriculum coaches, intervention teachers, special education teachers, and counselors will be ~~prioritized for coverage and~~ compensated at one sixth ($1/6^{\text{th}}$) of their daily per diem rate of pay when they provide secondary period or hourly elementary coverage on their preparation class period. ~~Special Education Bargaining Unit Members shall be assigned substitute duties on the same basis as, and no more than, other Bargaining Unit Members.~~ No aforementioned unit members shall have to cover an entire class for more than one (1) period/hour.

ARTICLE 13.10- PRESERVATION OF BARGAINING UNIT POSITIONS

When the number of periods being taught at one site on a daily basis by Bargaining Unit Members on their preparation periods equals the level of a full-time equivalent (FTE) teaching load less one period, the District will conduct a search for a teacher to fill the position. The District will not be required to hire a teacher unless a suitable applicant can be found whose credential will permit the applicant to teach at least the number of periods and subjects equal to full-time equivalent, less one.

ARTICLE 13.11 ASSIGNMENT TO TEACH ON PLANNING/PREPARATION PERIOD

Upon request of the District and agreement by the Bargaining Unit Member, a secondary level Bargaining Unit Member may surrender their conference/ preparation period in order to teach an additional period on an extended basis. "Extended basis" is defined as seven (7) or more days of substitute service following one (1) day of emergency service. The pay for such additional teaching shall be on a per diem rate according to the number of class periods offered at the site and/or grade level.

ARTICLE 13.12- PART-TIME EMPLOYMENT SHARING

Should the District consent to a part-time contract for a Bargaining Unit Member, the salary, benefits, hours and other conditions for the part-time Bargaining Unit Member shall be in proportion to the full-time equivalency of the individual arrangement. (e.g., A Bargaining Unit Member working under a one-half (1/2) time contract would receive 50% of his/her salary and be required to spend one-half (1/2) work day at the work site, will receive one-half (1/2) of the preparation/conference time of the full-time Bargaining Unit Member, and one-half (1/2) the fringe benefits of full-time Bargaining Unit Members.) The Bargaining Unit Member may provide the difference in cost to equal full coverage provided a full-time Bargaining Unit Member. Such arrangements as are amicable to the District and the Bargaining Unit Member may be made in which case hours of employment and salary shall be proportional to the full-time equivalent of the individual arrangement.

ARTICLE 13.13- BELL SCHEDULES

The bell schedules for elementary, middle and high schools shall be as follows, effective August 4, 2022 and ongoing thereafter, unless the Parties negotiate otherwise:

- a. Elementary 9:00-8:50 a.m. - 3:10 3:00 p.m.
- b. Middle School 8:00 a.m. - 2:25 p.m.
- c. High School 8:30-8:40 a.m. - 3:25 3:35 p.m.

ARTICLE 13.14- PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT DAYS

PD days are defined as 7 hours inclusive of a duty-free half hour lunch, if lunch is provided. If lunch is not provided the day is defined as 7.5 hours with an hour duty free lunch. The staff minimum day prior to winter break will be used for professional duties such as grading, planning or collaboration. For planning or collaboration teachers shall submit an agenda to site administration. Further the minimum day before winter break shall be a non-student day. Secondary teachers must submit grades by the conclusion of the staff minimum day. For the staff minimum day each bargaining unit member is required to work the same hours as their site's student minimum day schedule.
