PACK 412—COLUMBUS, OHIO

2021-2022

Cub Scouts PARENT ORIENTATION GUIDE

Scouting is an ADVENTURE Based Learning Experience

Youth join Cub Scouting because they want to have fun. For youth, fun means a lot more than just having a good time; it means meeting challenges, having friends, feeling good about themselves, and reassuring scouts that they are important to other people. While youth are having fun and doing activities they like to do, they also learn new things, discover and master new skills, gain self-confidence, and develop strong friendships.

- Cub Scouting is for All Youth
- Cub Scouting is for Families
- Cub Scouting is Fun
- Cub Scouting has Ideals
- Cub Scouting provides Adventure
- Cub Scouting helps Youth Develop Skills and Interests
- Cub Scouting has an Advancement Plan
- Cub Scouting teaches Youth to Reach Out
- Cub Scouting teaches Duty to God and Country

CUB SCOUT FUN, CAMP ACTIVITIES, & EVENTS

BOBCATS NIGHT

Within the first month of scouting, Pack 412 provides the opportunity for new scouts to earn their first rank of Bobcat. All new scouts earn this through learning activities, and a special ceremony takes place to welcome the newest scouts into the Pack.

SCOUTING FOR FOOD

An essential aspect of our program is to help the hungry in our community. Food drives are held to benefit local food pantries in service to the community. Our food drive takes place in November each year.

PINEWOOD DERBY

The pinewood derby is a Youth and Parent project where we work together to build a race car made from a block of wood. The Pinewood Derby race is one of the most popular events of a Cub Scout's year and takes place each year in March.

BLUE & GOLD BANQUET

Our yearly banquet is the birthday party of Cub Scouting, typically held in February. Most often, it is a seated dinner, but sometimes it is a covered-dish supper. A special program and entertainment follow the dinner where scouts receive the rewards. The banquet's conclusion is a special ceremony for our oldest scouts that welcomes the Webelos into Boy Scouts through a special Cross-over ceremony.

DAY CAMP

Scout Day camp is a fun-filled week of adventure for Cub Scouts! The Simon Kenton Council holds these week-long Day Camps in various locations throughout the Council throughout the year. The camps offer various activities for our scouts to take part in throughout the day. Including: archery, arts & crafts, BB shooting sports, field sports, nature, Scout skills, and many other themed activities.

Resident Camps

Are you ready for an adventure of a lifetime? Cub and Webelos Scouts are given an opportunity to enjoy the long-term camping experience each summer at Resident Camp in June and July.

STEM RESIDENT CAMP is a four-night camp designed for rising first-fifth graders (and an accompanying parent or guardian) focused on Science, Technology, Engineering and Math.

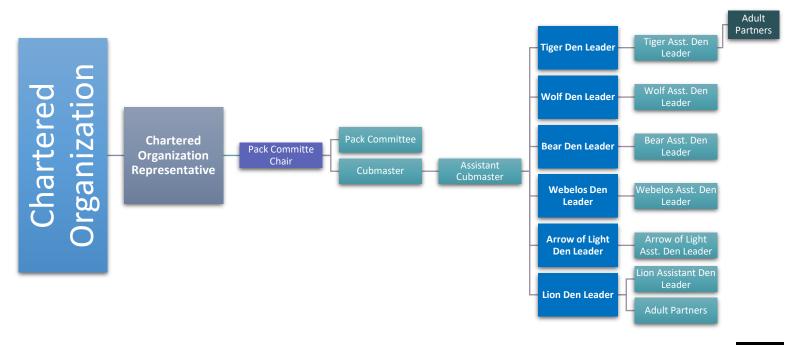

WEBELOS RESIDENT CAMP is a Monday through Thursday camp for rising fourth and fifth graders. Two adults must accompany any den participating.

What kinds of activities will you get to do while at camp? Swimming Archery, BB shooting sports, belt loop activities, campfire programs, and sports are just a few activities available throughout the camp. During free time you may hike around camp and don't forget your fishing pole!

You will sleep under the stars on cots in a platform tent. All you need to provide are the linens. Restrooms are centrally located around camp, and you will enjoy breakfast, lunch, and dinner in our dining hall.

NOTES

How is Cub Scouting Organized?

THE DEN

The Cub Scout pack is divided into smaller groups called dens. Typically, a den has six to eight youth and meets two to three times a month. Den meeting activities vary based on the age of the youth. Members of dens usually progress through Scouting together.

The Cub Scout ranks are organized by grade or age, so your child's den will be part of the rank specific to their age or grade group. A pack may have more than one den for a rank. For example, if your Pack has 16 first graders, there will be at least two Tiger Dens. Here are the ranks:

- Lions—Kindergarten (Lions must have an adult partner who attends all Cub Scout functions with them)
- Tigers—First Grade (Tigers must also have an adult partner who attends all Cub Scout functions with them)
- Wolves—Second Grade
- Bears—Third Grade
- Webelos—Fourth Grade
- Arrow of Light—Fifth Grade

When den meetings include games, skits, and other fun activities for the kids, the program delivery is the primary goal. You are encouraged to participate in these activities and work on projects related to an adventure, and that help them learn the skills they need to progress in their rank. Youth also prepare to do their part in the monthly pack meeting and work as a team.

When you first join Cub Scouts, they earn the Bobcat rank. Then they will work to complete at least seven fun "adventures" to earn their rank badge. Adventure activities are done at den meetings, at home, and on field trips and outings. At the end of the school year, Cub Scouts graduate and move up to the next rank. Here is the progression:

THE PACK

All the dens together make up the pack. Typically, packs meet monthly. These pack meetings bring together every den, their leaders, and their families for a large-scale event that showcases all that the Cub Scouts have learned and completed in their individual den meetings. Such a gathering gives the scouts a larger experience beyond the individual dens, demonstrating how all the dens are a part of the bigger Cub Scout program.

The Most Important Rule of Cub Scouting: KISMIF: Keep it Simple; Make it Fun

Keep it Simple. Cub Scouting does not need to be elaborate or complex.

Make it Fun. Cub Scouting is all about Fun.

Pack Volunteer Leadership

The Cub Scout program relies on a variety of dedicated volunteers. These are the people that keep your pack running smoothly and the Scouts having fun.

COMMITTEE CHAIR—Conducts monthly pack leaders' meeting to help plan the program. Ensures that adequate support to run the program is given to the Cubmaster and Den Leaders by committee members. Helps recruit additional leaders as needed.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS—Attends monthly pack leaders' meeting to help plan the program and take care or records, finances, advancement, activities, and membership.

TREASURER—Ensures the pack's finances are sound by establishing a budget, collecting dues, guiding fundraising projects, overseeing expenditures, and communicating financial reports.

SECRETARY—Makes sure proper records are kept. Keeps notes at leaders' meetings. Handles pack correspondence. Maintains records of membership and pack property.

ADVANCEMENT CHAIR—Maintains records of requirements completed and badges earned. Promotes the completion of rank badges by the Scouts. Purchases badges and awards, providing them to the Cubmaster for presentation. Helps coordinate the progression of Cub Scouts to Scouts BSA.

CUBMASTER—Conducts the monthly pack meeting with fun activities, impressive ceremonies, skits, and songs. Aids the Den Leaders by coordinating the monthly program for all leaders.

DEN LEADERS—Meet weekly for about one hour with dens of six to eight youth of the same grade/rank. The Den Leader sets the day/time of the meeting and plans the program to ensure that the youth in the den advance in a timely manner, learn Scouting values, and have fun.

NO EXPERIENCE NEEDED!

There are plenty of resources to help you succeed as an adult volunteer. Every registered adult takes Youth Protection Training. Other training courses are available.

Including: Before the 1st Meeting, 1st Thirty Days, Position Specific Training, and Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation (BALOO).

Participation in University of Scouting will provide more resources to help new (and experienced) leaders succeed. Be sure not to miss the monthly Tri-Creek Roundtable, where you can learn about what is going on and share ideas and experiences with fellow leaders. Roundtable is held on the first Tuesday of each month at 7 PM in Bishop Hartley High School Café.

THE ADVANCEMENT PLAN

A Cub Scout progresses towards a badge of rank on the advancement trail based on their grade/age. They need not have earned the previous rank to earn the next. Each of the ranks in Cub Scouting has its age-appropriate requirements, so earning a rank below a Cub Scout's current grade is not permitted. As a Cub Scout advances through the ranks, the requirements become more challenging to match their new skills and abilities.

Building a Better World, Duty to God in Action, Outdoor Adventurer, Scouting Adventurer, and one elective of the patrol's choosing.

• Pins are awarded to the Scout for each adventure earned. Once all five adventures are earned the Arrow of Light stripe is presented and the Scout is eligible to join a Scouts BSA Troop.

Scout Oath

On my honor, I will do my best. To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law;

To help other people at all times;

To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight. Saying "On My Honor..." is like saying "I promise." It means that you will do your best to do what the Scout Oath says.

"To Do My Duty..." A duty is something you are expected to do. At home, you might be expected to make up your bed or take out the trash. You also have duties to God and your country. You do your duty to God by following the teachings of your family and law. You also promise to live by the 12 points of the Scout Law.

"To Help Other People..." Many people need help. A friendly smile and a helping hand makes life easier for others. By helping other people, you are doing a good turn and making our world a better place.

"To Keep Myself..." The final part of the Scout Oath is talking about taking care of yourself. You stay physically strong when you eat the right food and get plenty of exercises. You stay mentally awake when you work hard in school, learn all you can, and ask questions. You stay morally straight when you do the right thing and live your life with honesty.

Scout Law

MISSION OF THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

The mission of Boy Scouts of America is to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetime by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Law.

THE METHODS OF SCOUTING

To accomplish its purpose and to achieve the overall goals of building character, learning citizenship, and developing personal fitness, Cub Scouting uses seven methods:

- Living the Ideals
- Belonging to a Den
- Using Advancement
- Involving Family and Home
- Participating in Activities
- Service Home and Neighborhood
- Wearing the Uniform

The methods bring Cub Scouting to life for youth and their families.

LIVING THE IDEALS

Cub Scouting's values are embedded in the Scout Oath and Law, the Cub Scout Motto, and the Cub Scout Sign, Handshake, and Salute. These practices help establish and reinforce the program's values in youth and leaders who guide them.

BELONGING TO A DEN

The den—a group of six to eight youth, are about the same age—is where Cub Scouting starts. In the den, Cub Scouts develop new skills and interests, practice sportsmanship and good citizenship, and learn to do their best, not just for themselves but also for the den.

USING ADVANCEMENT

Recognition is important to youth. The advancement plan provides fun for the youth, gives them a sense of personal achievement as they earn badges, and strengthens family understanding as adult family members and their den leader work with the youth on advancement projects.

INVOLVING THE FAMILY AND HOME

Whether a Cub Scout lives with two parents or one, a foster family, or other relatives, their family is an essential part of Cub Scouting. Parents and adult family members provide leadership and support for Cub Scouting and help ensure that you have a good experience in the program.

PARTICIPATING IN ACTIVITIES

Cub Scouts participate in a vast array of activities, including games, projects, skits, stunts, songs, outdoor activities, trips, and service projects. Besides being fun, these activities offer an opportunity for growth, achievement, and family involvement.

SERVICE HOME AND NEIGHBORHOOD

Cub Scouting focuses on the home and neighborhood. It helps youth strengthen connections to their local communities, supporting the youth's growth and development.

WEARING THE UNIFORM

Cub Scout uniforms serve a dual purpose, demonstrating membership in the group (everyone is dressed alike) and individual achievement (Scouts wear the badges they've earned). Wearing the uniform to meetings and activities also encourages a neat appearance, a sense of belonging, and good behavior.

THE CUB SCOUT MOTTO

Do Your Best.

BLUE AND GOLD

Blue and gold are the colors of Cub Scouting and they have special meaning.

Blue stands for truth and spirituality, steadfast loyalty, and the sky above.

Gold stands for good cheer, happiness, and warm light.

All new Cub Scouts, except Lions, must first earn their Bobcat badge before they can begin work on the rank of Tiger, Wolf, Bear, or Webelos. There are seven requirements:

THE SCOUT OATH (Learn to say, with help if needed)

On my honor, I will do my best to do my duty to God and my Country and to obey the Scout Law. To always help other people; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

THE SCOUT LAW (Learn to say, with help if needed)

A Scout is trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, and reverent.

CUB SCOUT SIGN

Show the Cub Scout sign. Tell what it means. Two fingers stand for the Scout Oath and Law. They look like a wolf's ears, ready to listen to Akela.

CUB SCOUT HANDSHAKE

Show the Cub Scout handshake. Tell what it means. The Cub Scout handshake means you are brothers in Cub Scouting and that both of you will obey the oath and law.

CUB SCOUT MOTTO Say the Cub Scout Motto: DO YOUR BEST

CUB SCOUT SALUTE

Give the Cub Scout salute. Tell what it means.

The Cub Scout salute means you respect our country's flag. Salute with your right hand to your eyebrow if you are in uniform and with your hand over your heart if you are not in uniform.

YOUTH PROTECTION

With your parent or guardian, complete the exercises "How to Protect your Children from Child Abuse" found in each handbook.
