RULES FOR CONDUCT

RULES FOR CONDUCT

A. The goal of the T.D.O.A. and its members is to provide a positive role model for the students through example and instruction. To be effective, the D.A.R.E. the program requires men and women of integrity, high ideals, and human understanding.

To promote the philosophy and purpose of the D.A.R.E. curriculum, T.D.O.A. and its members believe all D.A.R.E. Officers should maintain high standards in their personal, law enforcement, and school relationships. These standards include the following:

- 1) As a non-commercial, non-sectarian, non-partisan organization, the T.D.O.A. shall not endorse any political candidate. At no time shall the name of the T.D.O.A., its officers, or directors' names be used in connection with any projects of partisan interest or other interest other than consistent with these By-Laws.
- 2) At all times, think in terms of "children first" and how my actions will affect the child, their education, training, and future.
- 3) At all times, strive to improve my efficiency and knowledge in the field of drug education and legal issues in the particular drug-related area.
- 4) At all times, strive to replicate the D.A.R.E. program model.
- 5) Shall not disclose any information about fellow officers, teachers, or students obtained in the course of professional service unless disclosure is required by law, and such disclosure will be made within proper lines of authority.
- 6) At all times strive to establish and improve a friendly and intelligent cooperation between law enforcement and the school system.
- 7) Shall refrain from using law enforcement or school contacts in any manner that might impair or appear to influence professional or personal decisions or actions.
- 8) At all times, be a Professional, Ethical and Moral representative of my law enforcement agency, school system, T.D.O.A., and fellow D.A.R.E. officers. At no time present oneself in a public or private manner that may bring shame or dishonor upon the profession.

B. Violations:

If a Tennessee D.A.R.E. Officers Association member is dismissed from their agency for illegal or immoral conduct, their membership is automatically revoked.

- 1) Any member that witnesses a violation of the Rules of Conduct by a member of the T.D.O.A., and elects to take formal action against the accused shall send a written letter describing the violations(s) to the T.D.O.A. Secretary, President or other Member of the Board of Directors and the accused Member.
- 2) It is the responsibility of the President or acting President at the next Board of Directors meeting to present this accusation to the members present to determine if additional action should be taken. If the majority of the members of the BOD vote that sufficient evidence has been presented deems further investigation, the accused and accuser must attend the same BOD meeting within the next six (6) months, with the date being set by the Board of Directors.
- 3) After both parties have had a chance to present their evidence in a private meeting of the BOD., it shall be voted upon by the members of the BOD and presented as to the guilt or innocence of the accused. A two-thirds (2/3) vote will be needed to determine guilt or innocence. If the accused is found not guilty of the charges against them, no further action will be taken.
- 4) If at this meeting the accused is found guilty of the charge(s) against them, it shall be the responsibility of the two (2) regional Vice Presidents from which the accused is not from to recommend to the BOD the degree of punishment, with the two-thirds (2/3) vote needed for action to be taken against the violator of the Rules of Conduct.
- 5) The Secretary will record the vote and announce the results to the Association Membership.
