

Commercial Bridge Loan

Often, a company will be approved for a loan through its bank or financial institution, but the loan does not close for 4-6 months. During that time, we can provide a short-term bridge loan, and payment will be due when the senior loan closes to meet the company's short-term financial needs.

We can also provide other types of short-term collateralized loans and can usually close in 10 days or less.

