Welcome to Sierra Spine and Joint Physical Therapy!!

We are pleased that you have selected our facility for your physical therapy needs. We strive to provide quality care as efficiently as possible and want to make sure that your needs are met. Our primary goal is to improve your physical function so that you can get back to doing the things that you love. This requires a commitment on both of our parts and can take some time depending on your diagnosis and condition. We hope you enjoy your time with us and are pleased that you chose us on your recovery journey!

Please complete the attached forms as completely as possible, including medical history, billing information, and all consent agreements. All information will be confidential as we follow all HIPAA guidelines.

Thank you!
