

You are a Superhero

The Alpha and Omega is the end of a cycle and the beginning of a new one. The movement of life is to become awake and make the climb to enlightenment.....Hence the Phoenix.

Through the years we have struggled to understand all the things we have to fix within ourselves. We have honed our awareness to become who we really are and to be more connected to God and spirit.

No matter what we believe, there is an organic drive to elevate and to soar to the heights of the divine and remembrance of who and what we are. Most of us strive to become better divine humans and become spiritually enlightened. Not really stopping to realize that we are the prayer we ask for; we are the cure that the world is in need of. Instead of looking at everything that is broken, concentrate on the things that have been healed and elevated because of our participation.

We are Superheroes coming to a place that is alien, where the nature of this planet and the world's reality can be harsh. Leaving hearth and home, walking a path in a full circle to lay breadcrumbs for those who are less aware and even traumatized by their karma and mistakes that they have accumulated. But they too are laying crumbs for another as they move forward.

Jesus was our Super Star and has set a path of what it is to be a Superhero. To humble ourselves, not only for our own growth but for the sake of all; to forgo our ego, to focus on the goal of our spiritual responsibilities.

Counting mistakes is no longer okay; you need to look at your back to see the wings you have unfurled, forgive, and embrace yourself. Fly because you are not your mistakes, you are your accomplishments and you are free to change your mind and be the Super Star as God created you to be.....

Look forward and give yourself credit for arriving here and pitching a tent in rough terrain.....say, my God I did it....My God I am beyond my wildest expectations.....My God my imperfections are my perfections and the world needs me now to take the role of these Super Powers....Love, forgiveness, spiritual honesty. Break the old mirror and see your true reflection; judgment and opinion are illusions.....go within and find your truth.

We were acknowledged in the beginning for success, so now it is time to embrace it and turn the corner of the divine truth, that you are a SUPERHERO and ALWAYS HAVE BEEN IN THE EYES OF GOD...

I LOVE ALL OF YOU VERY MUCH, NOW, AND FOREVER
