

In collaboration with the RJC, The Restorative Lab and Restorative Relationships, are holding an innovative event to explore the inter-relationship between restorative practice/justice and special educational needs and disabilities (SEND)

SEND & THE RESTORATIVE MOVEMENT

This event is aimed at all colleagues working in the restorative field, including youth and adult justice, social care, health, education and community settings.

18 OCTOBER 2024

10am - 3pm

Central London

Participants will:

- Actively experience an innovative and engaging event as part of the SEND and restorative movement.
- Connect with and learn from colleagues working in the fields.
- Broaden and deepen understanding of the inter-relationship between restorative practice and additional needs.
- Learn what is already being undertaken in terms of quality practice.
- Identify key areas for future development within RP and SEND.

Tickets £90 (lunch and refreshments included)
Early bird (31 July) and/or group (3 or more) tickets at £75

Book via

